

Chapel Nuptials

MR. AND MRS. CALEY

Miss Shirley Jean Flickinger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Flickinger, 127 Riehl St., was married Saturday evening at 8 o'clock in First Methodist Church chapel in Cedar Falls.

The Rev. Kenneth Metcalf performed the ceremony in which she became the bride of William Kenneth Caley, son of Mrs. Gladys Caley, 222 Walnut St., Cedar Falls.

For her wedding the bride selected a navy blue wool crepe suit with navy and white accessories. Her white hat was trimmed with rhinestones and white veiling and she wore a corsage of deep red roses.

Miss Barbara Caley of Cedar Falls, sister of the groom, was maid of honor in a brown dress with avocado accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Gene Madsen of Cedar Falls was best man.

Following the ceremony, the bride's parents entertained 50 guests at a reception in the home of their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Manley, 1413 W. 3rd St., Cedar Falls.

Assisting at the reception were Miss Janice Martinson of Cedar Falls, Miss Grace Leierhoff, Miss Lela Leierhoff and Miss Betty Deeds.

After a brief wedding trip, the couple will reside at 908 W. 6th St. The groom is employed by the Rath Packing Co.

Melvin Schmitz and New Jersey Girl Are Wed

At home in Waterloo are Melvin H. Schmitz and his bride, the former Shirley Anne Paulus of Linwood, N. J., who were married Oct. 16 in Somers Point, N. J.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Paulus of Linwood and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Schmitz of Gilbertville.

They were married in a ceremony performed by the Rev. John G. Flanagan in St. Joseph's Catholic Church at Somers Point.

Miss Helen McCarthy of Linwood was the maid of honor and Lloyd Joiner of Atlantic City, N. J., was best man.

Mr. Schmitz is employed by the Construction Machinery Co. His bride was secretary of the Linwood Public Schools.

Annual Songfest at Cedar Falls for Girl Scouts

CEDAR FALLS — The annual songfest for all Cedar Falls Girl Scouts will be Wednesday at 3:30 in the afternoon in the Junior High School.

The songfest, at which the Scouts will be taught new songs, is to be in observance of the anniversary of Juliette Low, founder of Girl Scouts.

Miss Margaret Green of Waterloo, district director for Cedar Falls, will conduct the event.

Bessie George Is Installed by Greek Women

Miss Bessie George, 411 W. 7th St., was installed as president of the Daughters of Penelope for another term on Sunday evening in St. Demetrius Greek Orthodox Church.

The installation ceremony was conducted by Kopie G. George, past district governor of the Order of Ahepa.

Other officers installed included Miss Els. Foulas, vice president; Miss Ann Foulas, secretary; Mrs. James Kostadatos, treasurer; Mrs. George Gartelos, captain of the guard; and Mrs. Louie Myrsiades, chairman of the board of governors.

The president was presented an orchid and a gift from the organization and the Daughters of Penelope were given a gift from the Order of Ahepa.

Mrs. Eugene Smith was presented a war bond traditionally given by the Daughters of Penelope for a member's first child. Contributions were taken at the meeting for the United Appeal Drive.

Hostesses for the buffet refreshments served were Miss George and Mrs. Kostadatos.

Former West Potluck Club Honors Bride

Twelve guests, former members of a West High School potluck club, and their husbands gathered Saturday evening to honor Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Sackmann of Dubuque.

The event was a postnuptial crystal shower. Mrs. Sackmann was Miss Dorothy Stone prior to her marriage on Aug. 29.

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Meyerhoff of Ames were hosts at the ceremony, a buffet supper, in the home of Mrs. Meyerhoff's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Eric Hall, 3111 Alameda St., Cedar Falls. Guests were from Waterloo, Cedar Falls, Dubuque and Belle Plaine.

George Mayhew, Ruth Wutzke to Exchange Vows

VINTON — Mr. and Mrs. William Wutzke are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Ruth, to George Mayhew, son of Mrs. Edith Mayhew.

The wedding will take place Dec. 11 in the Methodist Church.

The bride-elect attended Iowa State Teachers College, Cedar Falls, and is employed as secretary in the office of Supt. Harry J. Eastman of the Vinton Consolidated School system. Her fiancé works for the Cambier-Van Wechel Motor Co.

The forthcoming marriage of Miss Beverly Jean Edgeton to Cpl. Charles Werning, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Werning, Newhall, is being announced by the bride-elect's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Horace D. Edgeton.

The couple will be married in November.

The bride-elect is a telephone operator at the local exchange. Cpl. Werning is on his way home from Korea and expects to receive his discharge from the Army upon arriving in this country.

DENVER — Miss Lois Jane Kirchoff, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Kirchoff, became the bride of Gerald A. Bruns, son of Mrs. Carl Bruns, Waverly, on Sunday at 2 p. m.

The Rev. E. K. Schneider performed the ceremony in Peace Evangelical and Reformed Church.

Miss Audrey Bruns, Waverly,

the groom's sister, was maid of honor and Ernest Kirchoff, the bride's brother, was best man. Ushers were Miss Joyce Pyer, Janesville, cousin of the bride, and James Bruns, Waverly, the groom's cousin. Mary Jo Falls, Waverly, the bride's niece, was flower girl and Verlyn Bruns, Waverly, brother of the groom, was ringbearer.

After a brief wedding trip, the couple will be at home near Waverly. The groom is employed by the B and B Cooperative.

QUASQUETON — Miss Maxine Jeanette Oakes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Oakes, and Jon Russell Halstead, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Halstead, were married Sunday at 2 p. m. in the Quasqueton Union Church. The Rev. Norman E. Werner officiated.

Miss June Engle, Cresco, cousin of the bride, was maid of honor. Candlelighters were Miss Shirley Smith, Cedar Rapids, and Miss Ruth Ann Oaks, sister of the bride, and flower girl was Delores Engle, cousin of the bride. The ringbearer was Steven Halstead, nephew of the groom.

Mr. Halstead chose Archie Eranck, Wintrop, as his best man. Ushers were Maurice Halstead, brother of the groom, and Robert Heikel.

Following a wedding trip Mr. and Mrs. Halstead will be at home at 1569 1st Ave. S. E., Cedar Rapids, where she is employed by Car-gill, Inc., and he by Collins Radio Corp.

Rural and Urban Women Will Be Guests at Dinner

WEST UNION — The second annual Rural-Urban women's dinner will take place Tuesday at 7 p. m. in the Farm Bureau Building at Fayette.

Speaker will be Prof. Herbert V. Hake, director of radio and TV at Iowa State Teachers College, Cedar Falls. His topic will be "Hits and Mrs."

The membership committee of Bethel Presbyterian Women's Association is planning an extensive membership campaign. Every woman in the church is being planned to fit every individual schedule. There will be afternoon and evening circle meetings and luncheons.

The program theme, "Christ is the Way," will include topics covering the challenge areas in wider work of the church. Besides the foreign topic, "India and Pakistan," and the national topic, "The American Indian," the study of "The Christian Woman and Her Household" is planned. The Bible study for 1955 will be Hebrews.

Hostesses were his daughters-in-law, Mmes. Thomas Place and Ora Watson, Denver; and his niece, Mrs. Jerry Lamb, Waterloo.

"Madame Butterfly" Survives Americanization at Wartburg

By DON CHOMINS, Courier Staff Writer

WAVERLY — "Madame Butterfly" was in English and three acts here Sunday evening.

The last two acts were convincingly tragic, but the first was just plain sad.

Once that act was disposed of, the Charles L. Wagner Opera Company made the first attraction in the Wartburg College Artist Series a memorable thing. Puccini's 50-year-old music emerged fresh and vibrant, and Rosa Savoia was a lovely Madame Butterfly.

The Wagner Company, according to promotional literature, is presenting "Madame Butterfly" both in English and Italian during this year's tour. The Italian version is being saved for "those towns where English would be too radical a departure."

Sunday evening the English translation did not seem too radical a departure, but it seemed rather a waste of effort. Ruth and Thomas Martin may well have turned out "a new and tasteful version," as is claimed, but much of it was covered by the orchestra.

Simple, Forthright Plot. "Madame Butterfly" has such a simple and forthright plot that lost lyrics aren't really missed. For that reason, "Madame Butterfly" must rate about last in the list of operas which benefit from translation.

Once John Alexander got off the stage, the whole production picked up and looked professional. Alexander, who played Madame Butterfly's American bridegroom, has a fine voice and the acting ability of a doorman.

It is his misfortune to look like Red Skelton, and it is the misfortune of the audience that he acts the same way. This undercuts the whole opera, because it is hard to feel sorry for the Japanese heroine when you are dead sure, in your heart, that she is losing a silly looking jerk.

The opera ends, of course, with Cio-Cio San losing her child and her life too, and by that time the troupe had built the production up to where it was very touching.

Shows Good Teaching. Miss Savoia, as Cio-Cio San, showed good range and great volume in her singing, and drew deserved applause on several arias, including "One Fine Day" in the second act.

Robert Allen Dean was a fine American consul, and should take Mr. Alexander aside and tell him how to look at ease while standing around waiting to sing.

George Del Monte lived up to the first act with a slam-bang entrance as Cio-Cio San's uncle, who — as a priest — denounces her for renouncing her faith.

The other characters all were adequate, and so were the lightning bugs in the cherry tree during the two lovers' moonlight scene. Having little flashes of light among the branches was a nice gesture, but after a while they lured your eyes away from Miss Savoia and Mr. Alexander.

Duet Sung Beautifully. Which was just as well, perhaps. They sang their duet beautifully, but they acted like first cousins giving each other leprosy.

Playing in a different hall every night must make life difficult for Armando Aliberti, who conducts the fine Wagner orchestra. Sunday the orchestra took to Puccini with enthusiasm, and most of the first act lyrics were drowned out. Aliberti must have allowed for the acoustics of the Wartburg gym in the other acts, because the singing

DRUNKEN DRIVING CHARGED. CEDAR FALLS (Special) — Paul Thomas Monson, 45, of Irwin, Ia., was a prisoner in the city jail Monday awaiting hearing on charge of operating a motor vehicle while intoxicated.
