Group Discusses State Convention "Roman Holiday"

Programs on thought and action highlighted the meeting of Delta Xi chapter, Beta Sigma Phi, Monday evening at the Louis Lomborg jr. residence.

Mrs. Shirley Miller explained that thought can be a mental picture, a belief, impression, memories, ideas, or reflections. Thoughts are involuntary actions and the purpose of thought is a guide to do what is right, she said. As food for thought she read these facts, "people spend more time thinking of things they dislike or that irritate them, than things they like," and "a thinker is a person who doesn't agree or disagree according to the majority, but uses his mental freedom to do as he thinks best." She concluded by saying the goal of thinking is the ability to arrange one's thoughts in an orderly fashion and concentrate on those that produce good. Authors, poets, and essayists have achieved the art of thinking.

The good of action was discussed by Diane Huinker who told of the value of physical action. First, to those who work indoors and look forward to the relaxation and pleasure of an afternoon of golf or whatever outdoor activity it may be. The good of action is not only physical but mental, too. Second, she stated, schools emphasize the need for sports. Team sports teach students the importance of being a good loser as well as a winner. It gives them a sense of responsibility in working with others, doing their best, and pulling together for the victory.

Hobbies such as sewing, painting, constructing model cars and railroads are a means of happiness for many people. In closing she stated, the very best actions are those of kindness and help to others.

During the business meeting the schedule of the state convention, "Roman Holiday," at Waterloo May 16 and 17 was read.

Reservations and travel arrangements to Waterloo for Founders Day, April 30, were announced.

A social evening is being planned for the next meeting, April 27, at the home of Mrs. Norman Miller with Mrs. Ben Ploof as cohostess.

Refreshments were served to members and one guest, Marge Kuper, by Mrs. Lomborg jr. and Mrs. C. R. McCarty.
