John J. Foutch only attended school for 60days in his entire life, but later attained a good practical business education. He came to Bremer County with Judge Farris in 1849. A year later in 1850 he married Charlithe Jane a daughter of squire Farris. They were the third couple to be married from this county and they ment to Independence to get the license. In 1857 he went to the state of Kansas where he found John Brown in his fight for political fractom. He returned to Denver in 1881 and in 1884 he organized a company of soldiers for the Home Guard which was known as the Jefferson State Guards of Iowa. He became their captain, but was never indepalised. He was discharged later in 1885.

To Mr. and Mrs. Foutch were born Rosanna, Hugo, Debby, William J. and Wancy.
