

GRID-MAN of the Week

Senior halfback Bill Nauholtz (145) scored a 35 yard touchdown Saturday night to lead the Summer Aces to a 13-7 victory over Fayette. He's "Grid-Man of the Week" for his outstanding play.

Nauholtz is a speedster, but he's been slowed during the past ten months with a groin injury. A sprinter on the Summer track team, he was timed at 10.2 and 10.3 for the 100 yard dash last spring, but hampered most of the time with his injury.

It's apparently healed and the halfback is ready for head-on action in remaining Summer games. Nauholtz broke over left tackle, cut to the outside and raced for his six pointer. He has a 4.8 per carry average in 40 attempts for the Aces.

An average student, Bill is a three year letterman for the Aces. He belongs to the Letterman's Club.

A defensive demon too, he was credited with seven tackles, leading the team.

Coach Robert Topping says, "I would say Nauholtz is possibly the fastest man in the conference. His injury still bothers him at times, but he's working it out. It wouldn't surprise me a bit if he gets under 10 seconds in the 100 yard dash this spring."

He's the team's leading offensive man (total yards). Topping hopes his jet halfback is ready and waiting for the final games with Waukon and Valley High. Summer has a good chance at finishing third in the Upper Iowa conference.

"The biggest thing about our win over Fayette," comments Coach Topping, "is the way the boys came back from the 47-0 trouncing we got at West Central." The second year coach said, "We're coming back and I think we'll win our last two games. Things are looking up a bit, at least."

The head mentor is happy with a sophomore quarterback, Don Behrens.

"Behrens has helped our attack quite a bit. I look for him to be one of the conference's best in the future." The sophomore passed eight yards to another sophomore Larry Tonn for the winning touchdown of the game (second period). Topping pointed out Nauholtz, Rich Meighan and Fred Whitcomb for outstanding play on the defensive unit. Meighan is the Aces workhorse, carrying the ball 60 per cent of the time.

"We've got to cut down on our penalties, we had too many clips last Saturday. We had other chances to score, but I think they'll straighten out before long," says Topping.

Fayette Coach Robert McCormack had his hands full Saturday. The Cardinals were playing without the services of two starters (booted from the squad two weeks ago) anyway when injuries cut in to Fayette's attack.

Halfback Larry Williams suffered an eye cut that received doctor's attention. Quarterback Ken Butters sat out part of the contest when he couldn't remember the plays. He was bumped on the head. Butters ran 85 yards for a touchdown on the kickoff following Sumner's first touchdown.

Elkader's quarterback Dean Lamker could possibly be the top offensive passing quarterback in Northeast Iowa. He hit 14 of 21 Saturday in the Warriors' first win of the year, 18-7 over Waukon. He's thrown as many as 31 in a single game.

Coach Jim Lorenzen of North High will spend most of this week's practice attempting to form an offensive attack to match that of powerhouse West Central of Maynard.

in the conference, but lack offensive punch. Postville held North to a 5 yards rushing and only one first down.

attack is rolling and its going to take a fired up offense to stop the blue and white under Coach Howard Vernon.

The big game in the Quad County conference is at Calmar Friday night when Rupert Caballero's Indians invade South Winnishick.

Arlington lost 14-13 at Turkey Valley Friday night and it could be a major playing card in the Indians game. Two starters were booted off the team last week (both linemen).

Coggon surprised South Winnishick last Friday, 7-0.

Tripoli is apparently off and running in the Cedar Wapsie. The Panthers crushed Wapsie Valley, 24-0. They'll close with Fredericksburg and Plainfield.

SUMNER — Robert Topping's Summer Aces made a bid for third place in the Upper Iowa conference Saturday night, dumping Fayette, 13-7.

Bill Nauholtz ran 35 yards for the home team's first touchdown in the second series of plays. Sophomore quarterback Don Behrens arched an eight yard touchdown pass to Bill Meyer for the other score.

Fayette's only cheering came in the first period when quarterback Ken Butters ran a kickoff back 85 yards for a touchdown.

The Cardinals played the second half without the services of star halfback Larry Williams. He suffered an eye cut late in the second period, returning in the last minute of the game.

Sumner dominated the game with 119 yards rushing and 43 passing for six first downs. Fayette rolled for two first downs, 16 yards rushing and 10 passing.

Sumner will close the season with Waukon and Valley High.

It marked the second defeat in six games for Fayette, a 3-2 mark in the conference.

ELKADER (Special) — Dean Lamker, Elkader quarterback, led the Warriors to their first football victory of the season Saturday, 18-7, over the Waukon Indians.

Lamker hit 14 of 21 passes for 192 yards and a touchdown.

The win was the first in six games for Coach Roger Hildebrandt.

Howard Larson and Tom Miller ran for Elkader scores. Lamker tossed to Paul Moore for the other. Waukon scored in the last period when Tom Fish ran 64 yards.

Curt Stoops, Elkader punter, was a standout. He punted out of bounds on the 3, 9 and 11 yard lines during the first half.

CEDAR FALLS — Waverly lost a non-conference football game Saturday night at Cedar Falls, 19-6.

is a Tripoli defeat, and it doesn't appear in the future.

The season has been a great success actually for Wapsie. Coach Arnold Brandt has shifted his personnel "here and there" to patch up gaping holes. The Warriors weren't supposed to win many when the season opened, but they have.

Oelwein returns to Northeast Iowa conference following a week off. The Huskies will travel to New Hampton.

State's Rushing Game Fizzles

AMES IA — Missouri quickly discovered how to stop Iowa State's football team, and Cyclone Coach Clay Stapleton will be working this week to attempt to keep Kansas State from using the same tactics next Saturday.

The Tigers pinned down Iowa State's Dave Hoppmann at the start of the game and held the lanky junior to only 16 yards rushing in Missouri's 13-7 conquest of the Cyclones Saturday.

Hoppmann passed for 101 yards but Iowa State relies heavily on his running and was unable to organize an attack without his help.

Stapleton said he was far from pleased with Iowa State's offense, which totaled only 31 yards rushing.

"We weren't good enough to score when we got that first break," he said. He was referring to the Cyclones recovery of a Missouri fumble on the Tigers' 15-yard line just before the half.

Iowa State was thrown back to the 39 in two plays and was unable to score the touchdown which would have put the Cyclones on even terms with Missouri, which had scored in the opening quarter.

The Cyclones' only score came on a drive triggered by Hoppmann's passes, with Larry Monte taking a 21-yard pitch for the touchdown in the fourth quarter.

That tally was not enough to overtake Missouri, which had scored its second touchdown on a third-quarter pass.

The loss, its second in conference play, virtually eliminated Iowa State from the Big Eight race. Missouri and Colorado are still unbeaten and Kansas has lost only once.

Bears Rip 49ers; Colts Over Detroit

by Mike Rathat Associated Press Sports Writer

Who forgot to load the shotgun? That was the big question in the National Football League today after the Chicago Bears completely muffed San Francisco's high-powered shotgun offense and knocked the 49ers out of a share of the Western Conference lead with a 31-0 wallop.

Clicking with an effective aerial combination with castoff quarterback Billy Wade pitching to rookie end Mike Ditka, the Bears moved smoothly Sunday against the usually stubborn 49ers defense and shackled San Francisco's three-barreled shotgun with a 5-24 defense deployment.

Chicago allowed the 49ers, who had averaged over 40 points in three previous games, to penetrate past midfield only once while Wade's accurate passes found their target for four Chicago touchdowns. Ditka grabbed two covering 47 and 15 yards.

The defeat left the 49ers and Bears with 4-2 records, a game behind the first-place Green Bay Packers, who whipped the Minnesota Vikings 33-7 and may have located a replacement for Army-bound Paul Hornung in hard-running Tom Moore.

Philadelphia's league champion Eagles rolled to a 43-7 victory over Dallas and remained in a tie for the top spot in the Eastern Conference with the New York Giants, 24-14 winners over the Los Angeles Rams.

Cleveland (4-2) stayed one game back of the Eastern leaders by beating Pittsburgh's ambitious Steelers 30-28 with the key help of Lou Groza's three field goals. Baltimore edged Detroit 17-14 and St. Louis blanked Washington, the only winless team in the circuit, 24-0.

Moore averaged 9.9 yards in 16 carries after entering the game for the Packers (5-1) in the first quarter when Hornung league leading scorer to report for active duty Oct. 30, aggravated a knee injury. Hornung, however, kept at his kicking duties against the Vikings (1-5) and booted field goals of 13, 18, 17 and 16 yards plus three extra points to run his point total to 92.

Hollis Returns To Power Packed Iowa

IOWA CITY IA — The poised passing of a new quarterback and the slick receiving of a rookie end have injected extra punch in to unbeaten Iowa's attack.

Junior Matt Szykowny, making only his second start, passed successfully on 14 occasions in a 47-15 rout of Wisconsin Saturday. He missed three tosses, and hit on all nine first half attempts as Iowa rolled to a 33-0 lead.

Much of Szykowny's success could be credited to the catches of sophomore Clayd Webb, who pulled two passes out of the clutches of Wisconsin defenders for touchdowns.

Webb also nabbed five other tosses and his catches accounted for 104 of the 169 yards Szykowny gained in the air.

Added to the fourth-ranked Hawkeyes' already powerful running attack, the new passing combination caused Wisconsin Coach Milt Bruhn to comment "Iowa has a better team than Michigan State."

Bruhn, whose Badgers lost 20-to top-ranked Michigan State, said "I'd have to call Iowa better because its attack is so diversified, while Michigan State just ran over us."

Szykowny's sureness as a passer wasn't unveiled until veteran quarterback Wilburn Hollis, an All-Big Ten choice last year, broke a wrist bone two weeks ago.

Hollis has returned to practice but he's working out at left halfback and apparently won't be able to perform the ball-handling duties of a quarterback the rest of the season.

It's doubtful that Hollis could have dislodged Szykowny anyway, because the Pittsburgh blond is too good to keep on the second team.

Webb thinks Szykowny is one of the best passers in the country. "All I have to do is wave at Matt and he throws me a strike," said Webb, a 190-pounder who is 6-foot-3.

"Webb makes anyone look good the way he catches the ball," Szykowny said. "I just watch his moves and then I decide if I should throw him a high soft one, a hard short one or a low one. The guy can catch anything."

Both Webb and Szykowny did more than throw and catch passes in the smashing conquest of Wisconsin. Webb was a defensive standout, and twice reached a long arm over a blocker's shoulder to pull down Badger runners.

Szykowny also scored on a sneak and kicked five extra points.

The return of Hollis will help the Hawks' running game, which spluttered at times against Wisconsin although Iowa rushed for 229 yards.

Hollis was one of the Big Ten's best runners, and if he can learn the left halfback duties he may see action against Purdue Saturday.

"I won't rule him out of the Purdue game," Coach Jerry Burns said Sunday night. "But we'll know whether he'll be ready to play Saturday."

Burns said the big senior would work behind Joe Williams, a fullback converted to left halfback when regular Larry Ferguson was injured in the opening game.

"We also want to try him on defense," Burns said and added that it was doubtful if Hollis would return to quarterback.

"He'll have to wear a brace on his wrist, and I'm afraid that will keep him from playing quarterback for us."

Burns indicated much of this week's workout would be spent polishing the Hawkeyes' running attack.

"I liked our passing, and our defense against Wisconsin," he said. "But I wasn't satisfied with our running game. We can do better."

God gives every bird its food, but he doesn't throw it into the nest.
