Family reunited after 40 years

This is the Hay family, several members of which have been reunited for the first time in more than 40 years. Seated are Mrs. Heinrich Kaack of Germany, who has recently arrived here with her husband to spend a few months visiting relatives and friends, and Mrs. Anton Denkinger of Cedar Falls. Standing behind their sisters are, left to right, Herman Hay of Sumner, Chris Hay of Cedar Falls, William Hay of Sumner, Henry Hay of Waverly and Hans Hay of Portland, Ore. Mr. and Mrs. Hans Hay have also been in this area for the past several weeks to greet their relatives from Germany and to visit with his other brothers and sisters in northeast Iowa. Mrs. Kaack's arrival here recently marked the first time her brothers, Herman and Hans had seen her since leaving Germany in 1925. Her sister, Mrs. Denkinger and her brothers, William and Henry had not seen her since 1927, the year they came from Germany to this country. Chris Hay, the younger brother arrived here in 1953.

60 area farmers are guests of Rotary

More than 60 area farmers were guests of the Sumner Rotary Club Tuesday night at the annual "Farmer's Night" held at the St. John American Lutheran Parish House.

Lee Kline, Farm Reporter for WHO Radio and TV, Des Moines, was the featured speaker.

Kline, in a novel way ,presented some serious thoughts about today's "Miracle of Agriculture". His presentation included taped interviews with various persons throughout the State of Iowa, regarding their philosophies of life and reasons for farming.

Earlier, Kline taped an interview with three young farmers, Stanley Koester, recently discharged from the Army and now farming with his father; Larry Leyh, turkey and grain farmer; and Gregg Strottman, dairy and grain farmer.

Rueben Koester, Stanley's father, was also interviewed. The Koesters are dairy and grain farmers.
