

HAWKEYE

Funeral services were held at the Arnold Schlatter home Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock for Clifford Henry the 5 1/2 month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ott who lives west of Hawkeye. He died Thursday at the hospital at Iowa City, Nov. 6. His death was due to blood infection. He was born June 5, 1936. The Rev. F. Ide, pastor of the Richfield Lutheran church officiated. Songs were sung by Edwin Niewoehner and Willis Morf accompanied on the piano by Mrs. Alfred Morf. Burial was made in the Richfield cemetery. Pall bearers were: Auden Schlatter, Lavern Niewoehner, George Gundacker and Robert Pleeggenhül. He is survived by his parents Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Ott, one small brother, Owen, 2 1/2 years old, his maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Schlatter and his paternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Ott.

Rebekah Lodge Celebrates 25 Year Memberships The Moonlight Rebekah lodge held their regular social meeting Friday evening. Four members were honored having a membership of 25 years. The members were Mesdames Electa Lee, Emma Wilbur, Lillian Parker and J. L. Zoller. Also the birthday of Mrs. Charlotte McCreary was observed. The program was made up of reading, singing and a short playlet "Agents Not Wanted" with Mr. and Mrs. Kiron Hoyt, Glen Buck and David Spence making up the cast. Mrs. Edna Perry, district delegate, gave her report on the Grand Lodge. Dancing and picnic supper were enjoyed. Visitors were present from West Union and Maynard.

Entertained Bridge Club Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Burkhardt entertained the bridge club at a 7 o'clock dinner at their home here Wednesday evening. Prizes at bridge were won by Mesdames H. H. Engel, A. D. Knox and A. R. Wendland.

Dr. C. A. Kearney Death The funeral of Dr. Charles A. Kearney of Des Moines, father of Mrs. W. E. Walsh of Hawkeye was held Sunday afternoon at Engelhard funeral home at Dubuque. The Rev. C. A. Carnel of Westminister Presbyterian church officiated. Burial was in the Linwood cemetery at Dubuque. He died Thursday night at the Iowa City hospital due to a heart attack. He is survived by his widow, one daughter, Mrs. Helen Walsh, two sons, William, Iowa City, and Freeman Chicago. Those attending from here were Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Walsh, Messrs. and Mesdames A. R. Wendland, W. W. Burkhardt, J. W. Whorley, H. H. Engel, L. H. Hauth and Mrs. Orva Bevin.

Local Dentist Entertains Fayette County Dentists Dr. L. W. Sals, local dentist, entertained the Fayette County Dental Association at a 6:30 turkey dinner Tuesday evening at the Dew Drop Inn. Following the dinner a clinic was held in Dr. Sals' offices. The guests included the following doctors: Davis, Oleson, Harper, McDevitt, Mische of Oelwein; Wright, Buhman and Molmuby, West Union; Murphy, Sumner, Brandt, Clermont, and Belding of Waucoma.

Firemen Sponsor 35th Annual Ball The Hawkeye firemen will sponsor the 35th Annual Ball to be held Thursday evening, Nov. 26 in the Hawkeye opera house. Kelsey orchestra will furnish the music.

H. A. T. Club Meet Mrs. W. L. Chamberlain was hostess to the History and Travel club at her home here Friday afternoon. The meeting was conducted by Mrs. Glen Aspinwall, president. Roll call was responded by Immigrant Gifts to American Life. A paper, "The Puritan Tradition" was read by Mrs. H. Schradler. Colonial Manner and Dress by Mrs. W. E. Jones. A talk on art by Harry Brennecke and a Colonial dance by Ruth Curtis, Beverly Tompkins and Donna Rose Gundacker.

The local fire department was called to the Gus Gundacker home Friday evening. But luckily it proved out to be only a bad chimney fire.

M. E. Church Hold Mission Meeting Preaching Mission will be held here at the M. E. church, Nov. 29 to Dec. 6. The first speaker will be Dr. F. C. Wittgman, minister of First M. E. church of Oelwein Nov. 29. Monday evening Rev. George Turner of Monona. Other speakers during the meeting will be Dr. John D. Clinton, Fayette; Dr. Arthur Kindred, Rev. George DeFisher, West Union, Rev. Clarence Oelckie, Randallia, Rev. Nelson, and Dr. H. C. Travis will give the final address Dec. 6.

Teachers Plan Xmas Program The Rev. and Mrs. E. W. Keigler and son Billy, and a number of Sunday School teachers of the Trinity Lutheran church held a picnic dinner at the Miss Emma Luchel home Sunday. In the afternoon a meeting was held making plans and arrangements for the Christmas classes parts in the present for Xmas. Those present were Mrs. and Mrs. Dorothy Grannemann and Evelyn Schlatter, Mrs. Mildred Bogalske, Ella Ruth Hyman and Alice 9th Birthday Celebrated Mrs. Carl Westphal entertained a group of girls and boys at a party Thursday afternoon in honor of her daughter, Florentine's 9th birthday. Games were played and many nice gifts were presented her.

Basketball Schedule The basketball schedule for the Hawkeye public school follows: Nov. 24—Fredericksburg boys and girls, here. Dec. 4—Randallia boys 1st and 2nd, here. Dec. 11—Stanley boys and girls, here. Dec. 15—Elgin boys 1st and 2nd, here. Dec. 18—Maynard boys and girls, here. Dec. 25—Fredericksburg boys and girls, here. Jan. 5—Fredericksburg boys and girls, here. Jan. 12—Elgin boys 1st and 2nd, here. Jan. 15—Stanley boys and girls, here. Jan. 22—Maynard boys and girls, here. Jan. 29—Clermont boys and girls, here. Feb. 5—Calmar boys and girls, here. Feb. 12—Clermont boys and girls, here. Feb. 19—County Tournament. Feb. 26—Calmar boys and girls, here. March 5—Sectional Tournament.

Barn Destroyed by Fire Fire destroyed the barn on the Ludwick property here Tuesday night about twelve thirty. It was discovered by John Fritz, who had just returned from Waterloo. The electric light wires were burned into leaving the town in darkness till the electric light men from West Union came and repaired them. The origin of the fire has not been determined. The loss is estimated at about $350. Corn, garden tools and some household goods were destroyed. The loss is covered by insurance.

Hostess to M. E. Ladies' Aid Mrs. E. A. Smith was hostess to the M. E. Junior Ladies' Aid. 25 members and 5 guests, at her home here Saturday evening. Mrs. G. W. Aspinwall led the meeting. Mrs. L. H. Hauth and Mrs. W. E. Jones conducted a Thanksgiving quiz by drawing the best turkey. Mrs. Fred Richardson won the prize for getting the most names from the word Thanksgiving. Two recitations were given by Shirley Trewin and Betty Sals. Lunch was served by the hostess.

Entertains 500 Club Mrs. Mary Engelke entertained her 500 club at a party Sunday evening. Seven tables were played at which high score was won by Mrs. H. F. Hauth and John Fritz. The prizes were won by Mrs. L. W. L. Lone and Jake Kocher. Lunch was served by the hostess.

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Lee, left Monday for Langwath, Ia. where they will spend a few days in the Vern Sands home. Their two children, Merle and Dolores, will stay in the grand parental George Probst home.

Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kangley entertained Mrs. Martha Delording of Tripoli, Messrs. and Mesdames H. F. Fritz, John Fritz and two children, Paul and Mattin, at a 6:30 dinner Thursday evening. G. E. Jones of Calmar, former postmaster of Hawkeye, has sold his store here operated at Calmar the past several years to L. Anderson of Estherville. The Jones will move shortly to Hawkeye in the rooms recently vacated by L. L. Ostrander.

Mrs. Rosa Schrader, Mr. and Mrs. Warren Schrader and family of Glenwood, Minn., came Saturday for a week's visit with relatives here. They were guests in the Fred Boggs home Monday.

Mrs. Frank Sorg went to Preston, Ia. Monday where Mr. Sorg is employed as relief agent at the depot.

Mrs. C. F. Schrader was confined to her bed several days last week due to illness. She is slowly improving and is able to be about the house.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Chamberlain, Elizabeth and Betty and Betty Johnson attended a picnic supper held at West Union Saturday evening for members of the Board of Education and their husbands, of the Rain-bow girls.

Mr. and Mrs. August Grannemann Sr., entertained at a family dinner at their home south of town Sunday complimentary to Mr. and Mrs. Earl Epperson and Mr. and Mrs. Ross Charles of Des Moines, who spent the week-end in their home. Those included the dinner were Messrs. and Mesdames August Granneman Jr., Ervin Burkhardt, Will Fedeler and Lavern, the Leo Hoepfner, Walter and Bill Grannemann families.

Mrs. D. H. Gundacker entertained Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Molden-pauer and family of Charles City Sunday in honor of Mrs. Molden-pauer and her husband's birthday anniversaries which occurred the same day and are both the same age.

Kenneth Smith and Virgil Roloff left Wednesday for Wat-gans, Kansas, where they will spend Thanksgiving in the latter's brother's home, Archie Roloff.

Sunday dinner guests in the Ted Reiser home were Mr. and Mrs. Henry Reiser and family, Geo. A. Reiser and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Sherman and baby all of West Union.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Heinmiller and family of New Hampton were Sunday afternoon and evening visitors in the Ben Heinmiller home.

Ted Reiser has rented the Mrs. Orva Bevin farm one mile north of Hawkeye. He will move his family there the first of the year.

Mrs. Bevin will hold a farm sale Monday, Nov. 30. Raymond Hargis is now tenant of the farm and has not made plans definitely where he will move.

Mrs. L. A. Westenberg, Aberdeen, S. D., Mrs. Paul Gabrielson and Mr. and Mrs. W. Bloom of Oelwein were Friday afternoon visitors in the Henry Koel home. A. Coffman returned last week from Kansas where he has been the last two months visiting in the home of his son Hershel. Mr. Coffman is now employed at the Charles O'Brien home at Maynard.

Richard Buck left by bus for Rochester, New York, where he has employment on a farm near there.

The farm sale of Fred Wendland was held last week with a large crowd attending. Good prices were paid for property sold. Corn sold for 95 cents a bushel, oats at $4, feeding pigs sold for $4.30 a 43, feeding pigs sold as high as $157, steers $56 apiece and cows $56. Fullers brought 60 cents a piece. Machinery was sold at a good price.

The Wendlands will move to the Connelly residence which they recently purchased. Their son, Kenneth will live on the farm.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Owens who had been spending a few days in the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. F. Duffield returned Monday to their home in Champaign, Illinois. They were accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Duffield who will also visit in the home of her brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Skeel at Marengo, Illinois before going to California for the winter months.

Mr. and Mrs. Vane Pattison returned to their home at Ionia the first of last week following a week end visit in the home of his parents Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Pattison.

The Foreign and Home Mission societies of the M. E. church were entertained Friday afternoon at the home of Mrs. A. S. Morse. The study hour for the two departments were led by Mrs. Margaret Jayne Collett and Miss Madge Benton.

The George Gaynor family accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Elmer House and Mr. and Mrs. Harold House and family of Hawkeye entertained a Thanksgiving with Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Gaynor and family at Hampton.

Mr. and Mrs. R. B. Raines of Independence were at Fayette last Thursday coming to attend the dinner and meeting of the Board of Trustees of Upper Iowa university.

Mrs. Grace Burdick, and sons Clayton and Robert were Sunday guests of the former's daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Hans Brueggen at Guttenberg.

The November meeting of the W. C. T. U. will be held Friday afternoon of this week at the home of Mrs. R. J. Kuhnes. There will be a special program.

The Mid-year meeting of the Board of Trustees of Upper Iowa university was held here Thursday of last week. Some of the ladies accompanied their husbands here and all were entertained at a dinner given at the home of Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Dorman.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Badger and Mrs. Carrie Paul entertained a group of relatives from Oelwein and Fayette at dinner Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Greenough are planning to have as their guests for Thanksgiving their children and grand children from West Union, Waterloo and Fayette and vicinity.

A large group of Fayette people joined others from the county in the service at the Fayette County Home Sunday afternoon observing Harvest Sunday. Dr. J. D. Clinton was in charge of the service and other speakers were Dr. George Def. Fisher of West Union and Rev. Paul Zoschke of Elgin. A choir of girls and the Four Trumpeters from Fayette furnished the music for the afternoon.

Albert Bailey went recently to the Veterans hospital at Des Moines where it is reported he will have an operation for sinus trouble.

Mrs. F. J. Davis entertained a group of neighbors and old friends at her home Friday afternoon at a tea honoring her daughter-in-law Mrs. J. E. Davis. A very enjoyable afternoon was spent.

Mrs. D. E. Learn who has been quite poorly for a number of months, is reported to be gaining.

Razing Old Building The brick veneer building on Main street owned by Mrs. George Gaynor which was recently damaged by fire was sold at public auction last Saturday afternoon to S. E. Campbell and J. P. Gaynor. It is reported that they will demolish the building and build a new one. This building was built nearly fifty years ago by G. D. Rathbun. Various firms to have been housed in this building were the Rathbun Drug store; W. M. Rickett Drug store; Rickett and Davis; Davis Drug store; Mavis Grocery store; Gaynor Grocery; Strayer Grocery and the R. A. Trimmer Grocery.

Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Lockwood and family of near Independence visited Thursday in the home of his mother Mrs. Mary Lockwood and with other Fayette relatives and friends.

John Learn and family of near Clermont visited Sunday in the home of his brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Learn.

Garden Club Met The November meeting of the Fayette Garden club was held Tuesday evening at the U. I. U. Science hall. Among the program numbers were a paper entitled "Perennial Phlox" read by Mrs. E. A. Billings which had been written by Mrs. G. H. Metcalf; a paper "Garden Understudies" by Mrs. V. C. Welch and a talk on November garden activities by A. L. Wood.

Among the Thanksgiving Day guests in the J. L. Caudle home will be Mr. and Mrs. William Heller of Fayette, Idaho, Miss Verda Caudle of Mitchell and Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Caudle of Fayette.

The second November meeting of the Kil Kare Klub will be held Wednesday at the home of Mrs. G. H. Metcalf. The afternoon program will be directed by Mrs. Harold Lobban.

Mrs. Selena Buhman as county president of the W. C. T. U. plans to attend the meeting of the West Union W. C. T. U. Tuesday at the home of Mrs. S. C. Grimes. She will give her report of the recent state convention held at Sioux City.

Mrs. Will Kelly went to Oelwein Thursday for a visit with her friends Misses Jennie and Mary Lewis, being called by the illness of Miss Mary Lewis who was a patient in Mercy hospital. She also visited in the Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Folsom home. She returned home Friday.

Dr. and Mrs. R. M. Deming and Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Schilling were at Arlington Wednesday to attend the funeral services for the latter's uncle Robert Newton.

Miss Elsie Cornely of Cedar Rapids is expected the middle of the week to spend Thanksgiving in the home of her sister and husband Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Heiser-son.

Harvest Sunday was observed at the Fayette M. E. church Sunday morning with special services conducted by Dr. J. D. Clinton. A mixed quartet composed of Misses Margaret Campbell and Lois Clinton, Lyle Klotz and Norman Mike furnished the music. The church auditorium was decorated with squashes in honor of the day. In the evening the Fayette Boy Scouts held a special service at the M. E. church as their annual service before Thanksgiving. Troops which they desired to entertain at this meeting were from Oelwein, Waucoma, Hawkeye, Clermont, West Union, Alpha, Randallia and Wadena.

W. H. Antes of West Union was a Fayette visitor Thursday and attended the meetings of the U. I. U. Board of Trustees.

Mrs. J. W. Frye and her mother Mrs. Charlotte Vaughn, accompanied by Mrs. C. R. Clark and three daughters of Fayette spent Thursday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Fox at Manchester.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch McComb and family of south of Fayette were Sunday dinner guests in the Harold McComb home, the former's daughter Delores, returned with them after spending the week-end in the Harold McComb home.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cook and guests, Mr. and Mrs. Martin Timm and family and Mr. and Mrs. Burton Cook and daughter of Arlington visited the county farm Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Cook were in Oelwein Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Cheney of Calmar were Saturday overnight guests in the parental L. H. Van Sickle home.

Mrs. C. R. Clark and daughter Jean of Fayette spent Monday and Tuesday in the home of her mother, Mrs. Charlotte Vaughn.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Cue and children visited in the John Meyer home near Sumner Thursday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Edel were shoppers in Oelwein Friday.

Mrs. N. L. Wait was a Friday afternoon caller in the R. W. Binning home.

Mr. and Mrs. Tim Mahoney and children were in Oelwein Monday.

Grades 3 and 4 We were glad to have Mrs. Butts visit our room on Tuesday afternoon.

We have new work books for our second grade arithmetic class. We finished making our grocery store and enjoyed playing in it. We also learned to distinguish the different coins.

For our sand table project we made a scene showing the Pilgrims going to church. We did our original stories in a room Friday afternoon.

We had the following visitor in our room Friday afternoon: Mrs. Fred McFadden and Kathleen, Dolores McComb, Joyce Fay, and Robert Hall.

Our health classes have been studying the value of eating a hot cereal for breakfast. We examined the parts of a wheat seed to discover the food substances found in each part, and also planted seeds in soil to find how long a plant can survive after it has used up the food in the seed. A discussion followed this examination in which we compared the seed and the body needs for food. We have formed a "Hot-Cereal for Breakfast Club."

The Monday Citizenship meeting was postponed until Wednesday and a Thanksgiving program was given to the room.

Both history and geography classes have begun new units during the last week. The fifth grade geography class studied about the cotton industry as the first importance thing concerning the Southern States. In their history they are learning about the opening of the West, and the Oregon Trail.

The Sixth graders are finding many interesting places to visit in Australia. Their history takes them to Italy to learn about the Roman World and why this once great empire declined.

Honor Roll for the second six weeks: John McSweeney and Vera La Hull in the sixth grade; Gladys Perry, Harry Schubert and Burton Oelckie in the fifth grade.

Perfect attendance for the six weeks: Clair Bark, Clair Binning, Lynn Davis, Burton Oelckie, Donald Fetrow, Ralph Vargason and Laura Fetrow.

Wesley Shaulis, Wayne Nixon and Dean Davis left early Sunday a. m. for Los Angeles, Cal. They were driving cars through for George Morf.

Mr. and Mrs. John Jarchow and family and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jarchow and son were Sunday guests in the Will Hyman home at Hawkeye.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kohls and son of Postville, Mr. and Mrs. Roland Cummings and children of Maynard, and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rugg of Mt. Pleasant were Thursday supper guests in the parental P. S. Chow home.

Mrs. Albert Benter spent Thursday p. m. in the Chas. Burkhardt home.

Mrs. F. C. Hoar, who has been visiting in the home of her daughter, Mrs. R. M. Duke and family at Oelwein came Saturday evening for an extended stay in the W. W. Shaulis home.

Sunday, November 22nd, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Shippy invited the community of Oran to gather at Reith's hall at 12:30 for a dinner party. Between 150 and 160 responded to this invitation. A splendid lunch was served and a spiritual spirit prevailed throughout the afternoon. After the tables were cleared away a nice program was given. To close the afternoon, Mr. Reeves of Waterloo gave a talk on Dinner Party foods, and all were invited to sample and see for themselves the fine quality of them.

The Oran High School basketball team has won one game and lost three. They defeated Readlyn 21-19 and were defeated by Randallia 45 and Hazleton 21-42 last week.

Stanley 16-33. The members of the team and the positions they play are as follows: Bruce Dugger, forward; Francis Youngblut, forward; Edgar Westendorf, center; Wendell Williams, guard; Roy Staack, guard; Willis Ross, substitute.

We enjoyed the visitors very much during visiting day. There were thirty two registered on our list.

Children Pooh who attends school at Readlyn visited our room Thursday.

Those who earned one hundred per cent in spelling in the third grade this week were: Duane Babe, Evelyn Brickman, Irene Westendorf, Malvin Tribon, Doris Heth, Herbert Buznow and Evelyn Staack, Shirley Ross, Donald Fink, Mervyn Meier, Evelyn Paulus, Alice Etgeton, Helen Cosselman, Cecil Sankey, Ralph Bets, Edward Kleitsch.

Paul Meier has been absent several days. Paul had a felon on his finger which required lancing. He came back to school Tuesday.

Mr. and Mrs. George Williams went to Minnesota Saturday to visit relatives.

Miss Josephine Nuss, Olga Lickiss and Geraldine Diller of Arlington were Saturday evening guests at the home of the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Dilley.

Miss Margaret Youngblut visited Friday and Saturday with her sister, Mrs. Clarence Freitag and husband at Frederika.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fink had as their guests Sunday, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Fenner of Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Cumming visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs.

Benesch and Dicky from Friday evening until Monday. The ladies are sisters.

Mr. Ed Greening of Tripoli visited with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Fink, one day last week.

Mrs. Frances Bennett went to Fayette Tuesday afternoon to see her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Chittenden. We are glad Mr. Chittenden is so much improved that he was able to return from the hospital at Iowa City one day last week.

Miss Hilda Wolfram of Sumner, who had visited in the home of her brother Herman and family, was very ill during the week. Saturday she was taken to her home in Sumner and last reports are that she is getting along nicely.

Sunday dinner guests in the A. J. Meyer home were their son Raymond, and Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Yakish of Cedar Rapids and Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Notthof of Sumner.

Robert and Ruth Natholz spent over Sunday with the Herman Natholz children during the absence of their parents who attended the wedding of Mrs. Nautholz' brother Will Bartz in Minnesota.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wolfram in company with Mrs. Herman Wolfram Sr. and Mr. Arthur Roder of Sumner visited Saturday with Mrs. Roder at Mercy hospital in Cedar Rapids.

Rev. Leon Gehret with a number of Luther Leaguers attended the joint meeting of Sumner, Tripoli and Hope at Sumner Sunday evening.

The Sunday school teachers of Hope met Tuesday evening for their monthly meeting.

Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bartels and daughter Edith spent Thanksgiving with Rev. and Mrs. Richard Steege at Plainfield.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Oitrogge were supper guests in the H. C. Warnke home Thanksgiving evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Steege and family, Mr. and Mrs. F. H. Steege and Doris, Mr. and Mrs. Alex Guenther and Ruth and Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bartels and Edith spent Thursday evening in the Emil Steege home, the event being Viola's birthday.

Mrs. Emelie Volker attended the wedding of Mr. Werner Thran and Miss Webster at Sumner Wednesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Steege and family spent Thanksgiving in the parental Mr. and Mrs. Charles Fritz home in Hawkeye.

Mr. and Mrs. Alex Guenther were Thanksgiving dinner guests in the Warren Miner home.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Wolfram were Thanksgiving dinner guests in the Fred Knight home at West Union.

Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Meyer and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Meyer and family spent Thanksgiving in the parental H. H. Meyer home in Independence.

Mr. and Mrs. Martin Cooney of West Union, Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Scholling of Fayette, Mr. and Mrs. Will King of Oelwein, attended the funeral of their uncle, Mr. Robert Newton, Wednesday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Young visited his mother and sister, in Panorama, over the week-end.

Roy Newton and wife of Dubuque, were guests of his sister, Mrs. George Baber, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Wayland Allen visited in the parental D. B. Allen home, over Sunday.

Mrs. Nellie Clute returned to her home in Edgewood, Sunday after spending a week in the home of her son, Dow Clute.

Little Della Joyce Duckett celebrated her first birthday, Sunday in the home of her aunt, Mrs. Roy Roberts. Her father and brothers, Mr. Fred and Ed and sons and her cousin, Miss Fern Rosenstiel helped celebrate the day.

Mr. Will Anderson left Sunday to spend the holidays with relatives in Washington and Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Appleton of Strawberry Point visited in the W. E. Daisy home Sunday evening.

Miss Margaret Noonan and Miss Mary Gleim were callers in Cedar Rapids, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim McAllister, Mrs. Barbara Sartz, Mrs. Mary Smith, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred King were among those who attended the funeral of Mrs. John King, Monday afternoon, in Oelwein.

Mr. Howard Sanders of Waterloo, Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Cornelison, and Herman Cornelison were dinner guests in the Leo Lauer home Sunday in honor of Mrs. Lauer's birthday.

Anniversary Celebration The sixtieth anniversary of the Centenary Union Church was celebrated Sunday. Mr. John Wilkinson, pres. of the Fayette Co. Farm Bureau was in charge. Interesting talks were given by the Rev. John Clinton, Paul Stewart, L. C. Surfus, N. L. McElroy, Art Doty and Mrs. Robert Turner. Mr. Wm. Fuller led the singing. The celebration was well attended by the members and friends of the church.

Mrs. R. Flack dies Mrs. R. Flack, mother of Mrs. John Arnold, died at the home of her daughter in Waterloo Tuesday. Mrs. Flack had visited her daughter here several times and has made many friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Roberts and Mr. and Mrs. Louie Anderman attended the funeral of the Ladies' Aid, Wednesday afternoon.

Mrs. Pearl Schneider and Mrs. Elizabeth Blecker of Oelwein were callers in Arlington, Thursday.

Mrs. Bassett of near Kalamazoo, Michigan, is here visiting her aunt, Mrs. George Lickiss.

Mr. and Mrs. Arch Perkins, Mr. and Mrs. Vern Antwine and Mrs. Leo Antwine spent Tuesday in Elkader.

Beatrice Brooks is spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Fred Burns.

Mrs. H. R. Young, Mrs. D. B. Allen and Mrs. Frank Handy were Fayette visitors, Thursday.

Mrs. Gladys remained for a few days visit with her daughter, Mrs. Metcalf.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Eckheart visited their daughter and husband Mr. and Mrs. Howard Rawson, near Independence, Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Fleming were callers in Oelwein, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Strong of Oelwein were guests in the Fred Burns home Tuesday. They are leaving soon to make their home in Chicago.

Mrs. Roy Seedorf, who has been ill for some time, was taken to the Mercy Hospital in Oelwein, Saturday.

Miss Mintzfall, who is attending Bayliss Business College in Dubuque, spent the week-end at home.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Peep were shopping in Dubuque, Friday.

Edward Hetzel returned Sunday after spending the week in the home of his brother, Lyle, in Cedar Rapids.

Mrs. Dick Canine and children spent the week-end in Oneida visiting her uncle.

Herb Hesner was a business caller in Edgewood, Monday.

Mrs. George Nordrup returned to Fayette, Sunday, after spending a week with her mother-in-law, Mrs. Eva Halsted.

Rev. and Mrs. E. J. Starr were in Sumner, Tuesday, attending a meeting of the Fayette County Ministers' Association.

Stanley Halsted left Monday morning for San Diego, California, after spending a ten day furlough with his mother.

Harvest Sunday Services Many Fayette County churches cooperated Sunday, November 22nd to observe Harvest Home Sunday services, and several special services were also held in the county.

Approximately 350 people gathered at the Fayette County Farm at 3:30 p. m. for a special service arranged by Rev. John D. Clinton of the M. E. church at Fayette, and Paul E. McElroy, County Agr. Agent. Members of the County Board of Supervisors, Fred Campbell, Hawkeye; W. P. Lauer, Elmdo and Fred Grummels, Oelwein, acted as ushers.

Plans for holding the meeting outside had to be abandoned because of the cold weather. Only a small part of the crowd were able to get into the room where services were held.

D. C. Carvey, manager of the County Farm, and his assistants, acted as guides, and took visitors through the various buildings.

The program consisted of two hymns played by four trumpeters, Roger Sewell, Wayne Timm, DeWitt Clinton and Claude Welch.

Twenty members of the Junior Girls Choir of the M. E. church sang one number. Rev. George Fischer, West Union, spoke on "Faith"; Rev. Paul Zoschke, Elgin, on "Hope"; and John D. Clinton on "Love."

Special services were also held at Centenary Church in Smithfield township, L. C. Surfus, P. P. Stewart, Rev. John D. Clinton and Paul E. McElroy each gave short talks. Special music was furnished by a quartet and William Fuller ten