

RANDALIA AND MAYNARD NEWS

FAYETTE COUNTY LEADER

Published Thursdays at Fayette, Iowa.
HATHAWAY & COLE, Publishers
 M. L. HATHAWAY, Business Mgr.
 L. L. COLE, Editor

Entered as second-class mail matter October 29, 1914, at the postoffice at Fayette, Iowa, under the Act of March 2, 1879.

Display advertising, per inch -- 20c.
 Locals, per line ----- 5c.
 Cards of Thanks ----- 50c.
 Voluntary poetry, per line ----- 10c.

Foreign Advertising Representative
 THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

RANDALIA NEWS

Gathered by Our Regular Correspondent

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Porter and two daughters, Beth and Grace, of Waterloo and Earl King and son, Dale, of Hawkeye were Sunday dinner guests in the parental F. W. King home.

"A Wild Flower of the Hills," a comedy farce in 3 acts, will be presented by the Ladies' Aid society Tuesday and Wednesday evenings, March 30 and 31, at 8 o'clock in the high school gym. The cast in the order of their first appearance is as follows: Mary Beman, Ruth Bacon, Geo. Traeger, Nellie Frye, Benita Briggs, Bernadine Reuch, Harry Holmes, Robert Hanchett, Romine Severson, Edward Bellis. The play is directed by Mrs. Mayne Severson. The characters have been well chosen and character portrayal is strong thruout the play. Come and see it. Admission 15 and 25c.

Sunday dinner guests in the Walter Butts home were Mrs. Martin Caudle, Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Caudle and daughter, Verda, Mr. and Mrs. Shirley Butts and sons, Merrill, Donald and Doyle, Mrs. Donald Clothier, all of Fayette, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Martin and son, Billy, of Oklahoma City, Mrs. Rue Belknap and daughter, Genevieve, of Huntington, Pa., Mrs. L. A. Butts of Maynard and Harry Arthur of Randallia.

Mrs. Effie Hanchett and daughter, Pearl, were Friday supper guests of Mrs. J. W. Frye.

Mrs. E. C. Knight and Mrs. A. L. Spatcher attended the music contest in Postville Saturday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Forrest Johnson and family, Mrs. Susie Scannell and sons were Sunday guests in the Harland McComb home.

Miss Marion Fay spent the week end with her parents and left for Dubuque Sunday to resume her work.

The week of preaching mission at the M. E. church carried through with one change, Rev. McClurg of the Oelwein Christian church taking the place of Rev. Clinton of Fayette on Wednesday evening. Due to bad roads and other community events, the attendance was not up to average.

Communion will be held Friday evening at 8 o'clock.

Play rehearsal for the 1937 annual Ladies' Aid play will continue thru the week. The play will be given on March 30 and 31.

E. C. Knight of Postville spent the week end at his home in Randallia.

Harley Stewart was a week end guest of friends at Waterloo.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Clow spent Tuesday in Independence in the home of his sister, Mrs. R. Leytze, and husband, and with other relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Alonzo Hancock were pleasantly surprised Friday evening when 25 neighbors and friends gathered for a social evening, with cards and picnic lunch.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Watt of Fayette, Francis Windhurst, Will Kleg, Misses Lois and Thelma Grimes of West Union were Sunday supper guests in the N. L. Watt home.

Tuesday p. m. visitors in the Alfred Smith home were Mr. and Mrs. Ed Smith of Hawkeye, Mr. and Mrs. W. Alley and Rev. Oelke. Mrs. Smith is just recovering from a hard fall on the ice, which bruised her right hip quite badly.

Mrs. Chas. Pecunovsky of Des Moines spent the week end in the parental L. H. Van Sickle home, the latter being very ill.

Mrs. Chas. Dietrick spent the past week in Charles City.

Mrs. W. Shaulis visited from Sunday till Thursday in the R. M. Duke home at Oelwein.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Wyatt of Cedar Falls and Mr. and Mrs. Joel Johnson and daughter of Hutchinson, Kansas, were Thursday visitors in the M. P. Odekrk home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Llewellyn and daughter were last Wednesday visitors in the Dr. K. Matthews home at Oelwein.

An all day meeting of the L. A. S. with picnic dinner will be held at the home of Mrs. T. S. Briggs.

Mr. and Mrs. John Riley and children were Sunday dinner guests in the Donald Hartz home.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Turner and Bernice and Theodora Turner spent Sunday in the Dr. Turner home at Sumner.

Sunday dinner guests in the W. B. Hall home were Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pettit, Mrs. Donald Rose and daughter, Donna, and Bernard Leistikow, all of Waterloo.

Word was received of the birth of a son March 16, to Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Witter of McGregor.

Mr. and Mrs. John Mahoney and family were Sunday guests in the home of their son, Tim Mahoney, and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy Odekrk spent Wednesday in the Gordon Trewin home at Alpha.

Mr. and Mrs. B. Monahan and family were Sunday guests in the H. L. Arthur home.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Van Sickle and daughter, Betty, Mrs. Floyd Hack and daughter of Waterloo visited in the parental L. H. Van Sickle home Wednesday.

Mrs. Eldo Reid was hostess to the Study Group at her home Wednesday, with 15 ladies present, picnic dinner at noon. Miss Lillian Lewis, H. D. A., presented the lesson to the leaders, which was "Training the Appetite." A nice time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Duke of Oelwein, Mrs. A. M. Jones and her mother, Mrs. F. C. Hoar of Eagle Grove were Thursday visitors in the W. W. Shaulis home. Mrs. Jones and Mrs. Hoar remained until Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Stroschein and baby of near Hawkeye were Saturday evening visitors in the W. C. Llewellyn home.

Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Fay and family were Sunday visitors in the F. J. Fay home in Sumner.

Roy Watt of Stockton, California, came Thursday for an extended visit in the home of his brother, N. L. Watt, and other relatives here.

The Fay Cue family moved from near Maynard to the S. C. Stewart residence, better known as the late Matt Wells farm, and will work for Sam Stewart.

Sunday dinner guests in the John Jarchow home were Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Jarchow and son, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Jarchow and baby of Maynard and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Schmor and family of Waterloo; the latter's family were Saturday night guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Shafer visited in the Adam Shafer home in Fayette Tuesday.

Mrs. Will Steffens of Sumner was a Monday caller in the Earl Blue home. Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Blinning and son, Clair, were Sunday visitors in the home of the former's sister, Mrs. Harry Melka, and family at Waterloo.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Holmes and family were Sunday dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Jasper north of Donnann.

Sunday callers in the L. H. Van Sickle home were Mr. and Mrs. Joe Cheney and son, William, and William Walker, Sr., all of Oelwein. Other callers the past week were Mr. and Mrs. Orville Van Sickle and family of Hawkeye, Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Wilbur and children, Mr. and Mrs. Donald Van Sickle and daughters, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Mabon and two children, and Mrs. J. W. Frye, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Van Sickle, Helen Van Sickle and friend of Monroe, Wis.

Mr. and Mrs. Everette Paul and family of Maynard visited in the Clair Sprague home Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. P. S. Clow were Wednesday visitors in the home of their daughter, Mrs. Harry Kohls, and family at Postville.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bratt and Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Bratt and baby visited in the O. B. Littel home at Sumner on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Watt of Fayette and Mr. and Mrs. N. L. Watt were Sunday visitors in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Watt.

Lloyd Delmore and Eugene Arthur of Waterloo were Sunday p. m. visitors in the Harry Holmes home.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Briggs and Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Sprague and Betty were visitors in Oelwein Saturday night.

Mrs. John Peterson returned Saturday from several days spent at Waterloo where she has been receiving eye treatment.

Misses Eloise Turner and Ruth Arthur were Saturday overnight guests in the Paul McElroy home in Fayette.

Bruce Vargason of Oelwein spent Thursday and Friday in the John Mahoney home.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Hall and wife and Miss Ila Mae Cooley spent Saturday in Oelwein.

Sarah Hoepfner visited Saturday afternoon in the Roy Odekrk home.

Miss Genevieve Belknap of Plymouth was a Sunday visitor in the H. L. Arthur home.

Wilma Blinning was a Sunday dinner guest in the George Davis home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Matthews of Maynard were Sunday visitors in the home of their daughter, Mrs. W. C. Llewellyn, and family.

Mrs. Warren Miner attended a quilting party in the Alex Guenther home Friday. Twelve ladies were present and a lovely dinner was served by the hostess.

Center W. R. C. met Friday at their hall for social meeting with Mrs. H. A. Mabon and Mrs. W. W. Shaulis hostesses and a very good attendance.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Fetrow and children and Clair Blinning were Saturday evening visitors in Oelwein.

Mr. and Mrs. T. S. Briggs were Sunday callers in the George Davis home.

Mr. and Mrs. Clint Shafer visited in the parental Robert Ponsar Sr. home at Maynard, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Bratt were Sunday visitors in the S. C. Stewart home.

Mrs. Peter Jacobsen has been ill.

Tex Hoyer of near Sumner spent several days in the home of his grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Hoyer.

Mrs. Bertha Kern spent last Wednesday evening and Thursday with her brother, Chet Adams, and wife in Oelwein.

Regular meeting of Masonic lodge will be Thursday evening, March 25. Mr. and Mrs. L. D. Rowley entertained the Whist club Thursday evening. Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Antwine substituted for Mr. and Mrs. Glen Mittelstadt. Refreshments were served.

S. T. Payne was quite badly burned on his right limb by a grass fire Monday.

Chet Gray has been quite poorly this week.

Miss Eleanor Rademaker of Des Moines has been visiting her mother, Mrs. Maud Rademaker, the past week. Mr. and Mrs. Don Simpson will soon move into the house of the late Mrs. Struthoff.

Mrs. J. T. Parke went to Kinross Friday, called by the death of her sister, who is being brought there from Nevada for burial.

Death of Henry Pratt

Henry Pratt, son of Henry and Nancy Pratt, was born at Austin, Minn., April 3, 1876, and died at his home in Chicago March 17, 1937. He was married to Miss Mayme Bramen in 1900 at Chicago. He leaves one son, Will Crawford, of Lincoln, Nebr., by a former marriage; two sisters, Mrs. George Smith of Maynard, Iowa, and Mrs. Joe Elliott, of Edmunds, Wash., and one brother, Merle, of Seattle, Wash. One brother, Fred, preceded him in death 6 weeks ago. He was ill about 2 weeks with pneumonia and heart disease.

Mrs. Georgia Palmer was called to Waterloo the first of the week by the illness of her son, Vibert.

Mr. and Mrs. Ray Lockwood were called to Fayette Sunday by the death of his mother, Mrs. Mary Lockwood. George Meyers Jr. is ill at the home of his parents east of town.

Mary Lou Barnes visited her sister, Mrs. Lee Coleman, in Oelwein Saturday p. m.

The father and son banquet Wednesday evening was very well attended. There were about 125 fathers and sons there. The banquet was served by one division of the M. E. Ladies' Aid. Rev. Oelke acted as toastmaster. The program was as follows: Invocation, Rev. Oelke; group singing; all parties called on to introduce their sons; Paul Pace gave a toast to fathers; Will Pace gave a toast to sons; two songs by members of the boys' glee club. The speaker of the evening was Rev. Eckler of Waverly. Song, "Taps." Benediction, Rev. Oelke.

Ad. Reading Circle met Friday p. m. with Mrs. Frank Schmitt, 18 members were present. The Circle are studying "Countries of the Old World." This meeting was given to the study of Great Britain. Government and history, Faye Cummings; People and Customs, Rena Patridge; Places of Interest, Mildred Schmitt; Ballad, Mercy Surfus and Wilma Bartels.

In the snow storm about 6 o'clock Friday evening, three cars collided near the mile corner west of Maynard, with the result that a doctor and his sister, who were en route for Minneapolis, were quite badly injured.

Frank Payne came up from Oelwein Wednesday evening to see his father, S. T. Payne, who was recently burned.

Miss Mary Anderson and Arlene Schlegel, our spelling representatives from Maynard consolidated schools, attended the spelling contest at West Union Saturday.

Mrs. Lester Foss has been ill the past few days with a joint infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Mel Schaf and son, Maurice, of Stockton, Ill., came Saturday evening for a short visit in the S. T. Payne home. From here they go to Waterloo and Webster City.

A class of six young people of St. Paul's Lutheran church were confirmed Palm Sunday, March 21.

Mrs. L. R. Coleman of Oelwein visited in the S. T. Payne and W. H. Barnes homes Thursday evening.

Mrs. Marie Reid has rented apartments over Heiserman's grocery in Fayette and will move there April 1 to be with her son, Melford, who is attending U. I. U.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Talcott of Webster City visited Saturday afternoon in the S. T. Payne home.

Frank Evans of Emmetsburg came Wednesday to visit his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Evans. He returned Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Mittelstadt attended the buttermakers' meeting of district No. 11 at Oelwein Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Walker Briggs, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Greenough, and Mrs. Shirley Palmerlee of Fayette attended Rebekah lodge here Tuesday evening.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Evans and son, Frank, went to LaCrosse, Wis., to visit Mr. and Mrs. Carleton Evans, Thursday morning. They came back Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Will Ashbaugh returned Friday from Dubuque, where they visited their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Hillary Snodgrass and children.

Tillie Haas has been in a hospital at Dubuque with infection in one foot.

Mr. and Mrs. Louis H. Buenneke and Mr. and Mrs. Anton Haas Jr. went to Des Moines Saturday.

Mr. and Mrs. Leo Adams and baby of Arlington were visitors in the home of Mrs. Bertha Kerns Sunday.

At the music contest held Friday at Oelwein, Mary Katherine Guritz took part in the solo division and ranked superior. In the p. m. the girls' glee club and girls' sextet competed with a number of other schools. The girls' glee club ranked superior and the girls' sextet ranked excellent. In the band contest Saturday the Maynard school band ranked superior.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hall visited in the S. T. Payne home Friday p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Brown from Fayette visited their daughter, Mrs. Harold Williams, near Maynard the past week.

Easter vacation begins Thursday of this week.

Mrs. Larry Brouillard left Sunday night for her home in Chicago after spending the past ten days in the Art Bauer and Will Goldsberry homes, where she also visited her grandmother, Mrs. Louise Goldsberry.

Mrs. Henry Schrader entertained ten ladies at a quilting party Thursday.

Miss Hazel Darwin returned to her home in Chicago after caring for her sister, Mrs. John Troxel, who has been ill.

Walker-Entwisle Wedding

At a single ring ceremony performed in the Methodist church at Hawkeye at 12 o'clock, noon, on Wednesday, March 17, Violet Walker became the bride of Loyd Entwisle of Hawkeye. The Rev. C. Dana Boggie officiated. They were attended by Eva Jensen of West Branch and Mrs. Donald Jennings of Volga City, and by Vernon Kolbe of Monona and Orville Entwisle of Hawkeye.

The bride wore a yellow satin gown with turban to match, her maid of honor wore blue taffeta and her bridesmaid wore blue chiffon. The groom and his attendant wore the conventional blue. Each member of the bridal party wore gardenias. The altar was decorated in yellow and white with lighted candles.

Following the nuptials a wedding dinner was served by the bride's mother and sister in the Orville Entwisle home at Hawkeye, the centerpiece being a three tier wedding cake decorated in yellow and white.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker and the groom the son of C. J. Entwisle of Hawkeye. The happy couple will establish their home on the former Parker farm near Hawkeye.

A wedding dance was given in the Hawkeye opera house Wednesday evening and was largely attended.

Mesdames Robert Sherman, West Union, and Donald Jennings of Volga City entertained at a miscellaneous shower for Violet Walker at the J. H. Walker home Monday evening. About 100 guests were present and many nice gifts were received. Dancing furnished the entertainment and the hostesses served a delicious lunch at a late hour.

R. B. Funk is seriously ill.

Mrs. Ernest Bellis returned home from Iowa City Thursday.

Harry Wade returned from Wisconsin last week and is staying in the R. B. Funk home.

Mrs. Lula Robb, West Union, was a Sunday p. m. guest in the M. H. Clough home.

Eva Jensen returned to her home in West Branch, Thursday, after spending several days in the J. H. Walker home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Holmes were Sunday guests in the Ernest Bellis home.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Jennings, Volga City, spent a few days in the S. S. Bowen home.

Harry Wade spent Friday and Saturday with Willard Schultz.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pieper, Hawkeye, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pieper.

Mrs. G. E. Finders, Oxford Junction, Myron Bright and Josephine Van De Geuchte, Rock Island, Ill., and Gilbert Go Silne, Moline, Ill., were Wednesday overnight guests in the J. H. Walker home.

Raymond Bright, Rock Island, Ill., came Sunday for a visit in the J. H. Walker home.

WEST UNION

(From West Union papers)

Frank Limbeck, 81, died at 5:15 a. m. yesterday, Tuesday, at his home on Franklin street. He had been in ill health for years, and suffered a stroke a week ago Friday.

Mr. Limbeck came to Fayette county a good many years ago, and ran a store at Auburn before coming to West Union about twenty years ago. He has lived a retired life in this city at his home south of the fair ground.

Surviving are the widow and their two children, Norris and Mrs. Jack Hough; also a son by a former marriage, Clair F. Limbeck, Dubuque; and a sister, Mrs. Lillie Egge, Webster, S. D.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Mullins have both been ill the past week. Mrs. Mullins running a high temperature since the birth of the baby, and Mrs. Mullins with a severe case of tonsillitis. He is under the care of an Oelwein specialist.

Mrs. Chas. Rulifson, who was called to Denver, Colo., last week by the illness of her mother, Mrs. Ed Huls, writes that Mrs. Huls is suffering from heart trouble and not expected to survive.

A birthday party was tendered Mrs. Austin Earle by fifteen of her friends Friday evening, March 12. A picnic supper was enjoyed by the company, a large birthday cake, baked by Mrs. Susie Peterson, adorning the center of the table. Fortune telling by Miss Mildred Peterson and a tap dance by Mrs. Marian Schatz were the entertainment for the evening. Many nice gifts were left Mrs. Earle.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

Mrs. Henry Schrader entertained ten ladies at a quilting party Thursday.

Miss Hazel Darwin returned to her home in Chicago after caring for her sister, Mrs. John Troxel, who has been ill.

Walker-Entwisle Wedding

At a single ring ceremony performed in the Methodist church at Hawkeye at 12 o'clock, noon, on Wednesday, March 17, Violet Walker became the bride of Loyd Entwisle of Hawkeye. The Rev. C. Dana Boggie officiated. They were attended by Eva Jensen of West Branch and Mrs. Donald Jennings of Volga City, and by Vernon Kolbe of Monona and Orville Entwisle of Hawkeye.

The bride wore a yellow satin gown with turban to match, her maid of honor wore blue taffeta and her bridesmaid wore blue chiffon. The groom and his attendant wore the conventional blue. Each member of the bridal party wore gardenias. The altar was decorated in yellow and white with lighted candles.

Following the nuptials a wedding dinner was served by the bride's mother and sister in the Orville Entwisle home at Hawkeye, the centerpiece being a three tier wedding cake decorated in yellow and white.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Walker and the groom the son of C. J. Entwisle of Hawkeye. The happy couple will establish their home on the former Parker farm near Hawkeye.

A wedding dance was given in the Hawkeye opera house Wednesday evening and was largely attended.

Mesdames Robert Sherman, West Union, and Donald Jennings of Volga City entertained at a miscellaneous shower for Violet Walker at the J. H. Walker home Monday evening. About 100 guests were present and many nice gifts were received. Dancing furnished the entertainment and the hostesses served a delicious lunch at a late hour.

R. B. Funk is seriously ill.

Mrs. Ernest Bellis returned home from Iowa City Thursday.

Harry Wade returned from Wisconsin last week and is staying in the R. B. Funk home.

Mrs. Lula Robb, West Union, was a Sunday p. m. guest in the M. H. Clough home.

Eva Jensen returned to her home in West Branch, Thursday, after spending several days in the J. H. Walker home.

Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Holmes were Sunday guests in the Ernest Bellis home.

Mr. and Mrs. D. Jennings, Volga City, spent a few days in the S. S. Bowen home.

Harry Wade spent Friday and Saturday with Willard Schultz.

Mr. and Mrs. Herman Pieper, Hawkeye, were Sunday guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Pieper.

Mrs. G. E. Finders, Oxford Junction, Myron Bright and Josephine Van De Geuchte, Rock Island, Ill., and Gilbert Go Silne, Moline, Ill., were Wednesday overnight guests in the J. H. Walker home.

Raymond Bright, Rock Island, Ill., came Sunday for a visit in the J. H. Walker home.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year's confirmation class.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Thiele and sons were dinner guests Sunday evening in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Thiele at Oelwein. The birthdays of Mrs. Walter Thiele and Carl Bradshaw, which occur this month, were honored.

Tom Case was a business visitor in Dubuque last week Monday.

MAYNARD

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Hoeger are the grandparents of a nine and one-half pound grandson, born to their daughter and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Block of Sumner. He will be named Clarence Frederick Jr. Mrs. Hoeger is at Sumner caring for her daughter and little grandson.

F. J. Mittelstadt of Fayette spent Friday afternoon visiting in the Will Goldsberry home.

Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Meyer and son, Milton, and Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bauer of Oelwein, LaVerne Meyer of Los Angeles, Calif., Mrs. Larry Brouillard of Chicago, and Mr. and Mrs. Ed Schrader and Lorraine of Maynard were Sunday dinner guests in the Arthur Bauer home. This dinner was in honor of Francis Bauer, who was in this year