High School Honor Roll.

Seniors: Gladsy Earle, Jean Fay, Pearl Hanchett, Elwood Mabon, Alfred Niemann, Robert Scannell, Margaret Talcott, Arlene Weitenhagen and Adelaide Wells.

Juniors: Darlene Benter, Clair Claxton, Marian Davis, Marjorie Edmonds and Anna June Pieper.

Sophomores: Warren Severs and Eloise Turner.

Freshman: Ila Mae Cooley, Berneal Odekirk and Marjorie Severson.

8th grade: Betty Lee Jellings, Robert Owen, Arthur Perry, Bernadine Warner.

7th grade: Carl Clemens, George Cooley, Daisie Earle, Pauline Jarchow, Grace Juergens, Ivo Odekirk, Wendell Reick.

5th and 6th grades:

Those on the honor roll for the last six weeks are Gladys Perry, Burton Odekirk, Harry Hubbell, Betty Sprague, Verla Hull and John McSweeney.

The fifth grade health class made a chart showing the foods that make us grow, and the foods that make us go. Now they are making charts showing the foods containing vitamin A.

Having finished the work over the New England States, the fifth grade geography pupils are beginning the study of the Middle Atlantic States by learning about their largest city and seaport, New York City. Because this is the world's largest city they are spending several days studying about the important facts, and taking an imaginary trip through it. All pictures and newspaper articles about New York City are brought to show to the student travelers.

The sixth graders are very much interesetd in their study of Iowa History because they are finding out what kind of conditions existed in our state when their grandfathers and fathers settled here.

Grades 3 and 4:

The following pupils were on the honor roll for the first six weeks: Mary Lou Arthur, Shirley Butts, Mary Louise Earle, Nayda Mabon, Meta Pfeiffer and Danny Severson in the third grade; Zeita Earle, Robert Hanson and Leslie Owen in the fourth grade.

Eight of our nineteen pupils had perfect attendance records for this six weeks.

Nayda Mabon was the first to earn a red dot on our spelling chart. A red dot is given after one has earned six blue dots, which are given only on Fridays.

We have decorated our windows with orange and black crepe paper curtains.

Margie Holmes and Danny Severson were absent on Monday; Meta Pfeiffer missed on Thursday and Friday.

Frank Odekirk brought us some opened cotton-balls that were raised in Arkansas.

Grades 1 and 2:

We had a perfect attendance in our room this week.

The following little folks visited in our room Friday: Joyce Faye, Barbara Ann Clark and Sonny Wilbur.

Several black cats and pumpkin men have taken possession of our room.

In our science class we have learned the parts of a leaf and also are able to recognize two leaves.

The pupils in the first grade enjoyed making a fall scene as a sand table project this week.

Gunpowder in Use 6 Centuries

Gunpowder first was employed to discharge a projectile early in the Fourteenth century. It was used in a device of a German monk.

"Gabriel's Insurrection"

"Gabriel's Insurrection," was an insurrection incited among negro slaves around Richmond, Va., in 1800, by a slave of Thomas Prosser, called "General Gabriel."

Girl Babies Cry Most

New-born girls cry an average of 44 per cent of the time, boys only 35 per cent, the Chicago Lying-In hospital reports.

Wisconsin Bow, Arrow Law

Wisconsin forbids the shooting of an arrow from a bow within forty rods of a public park.

Highest Soprano Voice

Lucrezia Agujari (1743-1783), an Italian opera singer, is said to have possessed the highest soprano voice ever known, says Collier's Weekly. She could sing notes of excellent quality as high as C in altissimo, or more than an octave above the B flat which is about the limit of the average soprano.

Weight of Men and Women

The average American man weighs 153 pounds, the average woman 140. The average man carries in his pockets one-half pound of money, keys, pencils, and the like. The average woman carries one and one-fourth pounds in her handbag, says a scale company in Toledo.
