The argument is also advanced that since the state board of audit approved the claims the plaintiff is estopped from attacking the action of such legally constitutional tribunal."

The case, in question, was brought by the late Brown McCrary of Carroll against Ray E. Johnson, state treasurer, seeking recovery of the individual expense accounts. McCrary also filed another suit in Carroll county against General Assemblyman George O'Donnell, which he won in the lower court and is being appealed to the state supreme court. This suit tests the validity of the act as applied to members of the 43rd general assembly.

RANDALIA NEWSObituary.

Mary Kinble Lyons was born April 7, 1840, in Rock County, Wis., near Fox Lake. She was the sixth child in a family of eight. She is the last of her family to pass to the great beyond. She was married to Benjamin J. Lyons Sept. 2nd, 1858 at Fox Lake, Dodge County, Wis. Three daughters blessed the union. Mrs. Manzo Smith of Maquoketa, Mrs. Ella Rogers and Miss Lillie Lyons, who made their home with their mother. Mr. Lyons died Feb. 14, 1891. Since that time Mrs. Lyons and her two daughters have remained in the old home, where she passed away at the age of 92 years, three months and one day after an illness of nearly nine weeks, during which time she was a great sufferer.

The damage was described as most intense in Osceola, Lyon, Dickinson, Plymouth, and Emmet counties with Plymouth suffering most from hail and other areas from the high wind.

Temperatures thus far this month have averaged below normal, the report said, and this factor coupled with a 20 per cent excess of precipitation has resulted in slowing up development of Iowa's corn crop.

The crop was 10 days ahead of normal last week but today it was only slightly ahead of normal with tassels coming on slowly.

Wet weather also was detrimental to haying but was favorable to filling of small grains, the report said. It was estimated that one-third of the state's oats is already cut but the comment was made that at the present price it will not pay to harvest and thresh the crop.

Yields of from 14 to 20 bushels to the acre of winter wheat were reported from some southwestern counties where the crop has been threshed.

Among those from away attending the funeral of Mrs. Lyons were Mr. and Mrs. John Falb, John Falb Jr., Miss Verle Knief, Mr. and Mrs. Rudy Younker, Mrs. Celia Reznison, Miss Mable Reznison, Miss Louise Schorl, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Jack and daughter Serene, all from Elgin; Mrs. L. G. Garden, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Ladwig, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Wolfgram and son Marvel, Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Bethel, all of Sumner; Mrs. Kimpston and daughter and Henry Proctor of West Union; Chas. Proctor and family of Smithfield; Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Sykes, Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Neuen schwander and daughter Kathryn, all of Maynard, and Mr. and Mrs. Claude Holmes and two sons of Rock Falls.
