Sparrow's Many Songs
 One song sparrow may have as many as 20 different songs, says Nature Magazine, such as much less than the exclusive property as though copyright. But all of these, as well as the songs of all other song sparrows, have certain qualities that proclaim that the singers belong to that species and no other.

Proud Colorado
 Colorado has 42 mountains with in its borders that are 14,000 feet high, and 13 others. One-seventh of the entire states is more than 10,000 feet above the sea.—Woman's Home Companion.

 The burro is a descendant of the first monkeys brought over by the Spaniards, and was first used on this continent in Mexico.

Reflection
 "Yes, M'sieu," said a Belgian seamstress, "when my four smiles at me like that over there then it is easy to smile back. The both of us are well content—is it not so?"—William Feather.

Why Study Philosophy?
 The college man who has studied philosophy will listen to what other people have to tell them. The man who has studied the more practical things has too many ideas of his own about the work.—American Magazine.

Lean on Others
 Every wit is a self-given privilege. We should neither attempt to decide things for others nor ask them to do so for us.—Woman's Home Companion.

Another Idea
 Economy is going without something you do want in case you should some day want something you probably won't want.—Anthony Hope.

Suttee Evidence in Prussia
 The excavations carried on in the Sandomir district of East Prussia disclose finds that indicate the customs of the most ancient inhabitants of this part of Germany were burned alive on their husbands' funeral pyres. It is known that these ancient Prussians preserved much of the language and customs of their original Indogermanic home.

Venetian Potentate
 The doge of Venice was the head of the state. Venice was an elective monarchy. The first doge was chosen in 427. The office was abolished in 1797. For many years it had been an empty honor, but for the first 600 years of this form of government the doge had about the same power as a king.

THEY GAVE A new Thrill

A MEXICAN REVOLUTION LEFT HIM BROKE. JUST A FEW YEARS LATER HE WAS A HIGH-SALARIED MOVIE STAR.

FAST SUCCESS STORY NO. 9

RAMON NOVARRO

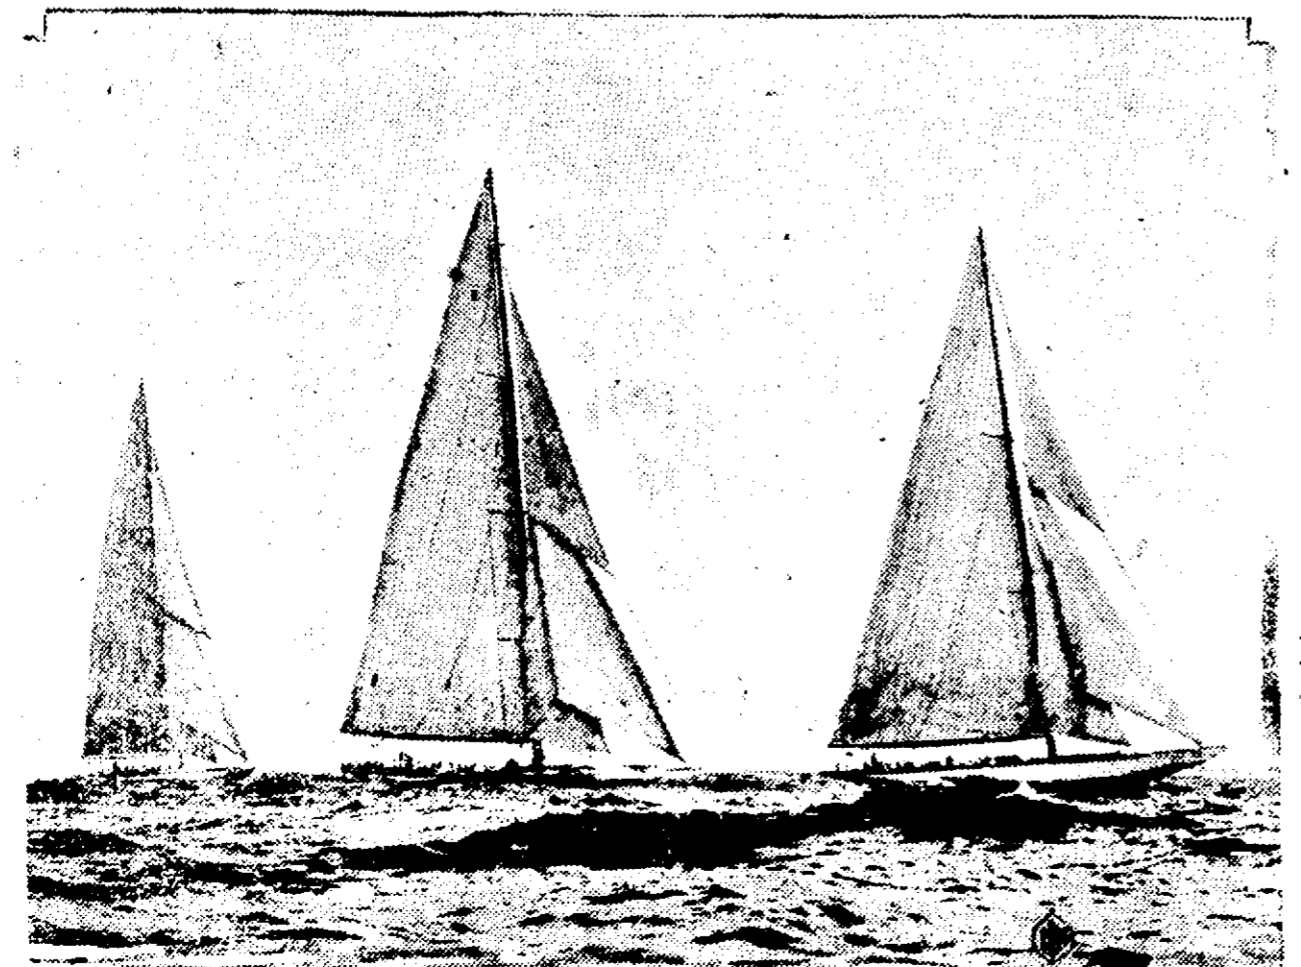

His Spanish forebears conquered Mexico . . . won the country in ten brief years. But Ramon alone conquered America, conquered Europe, and all points east . . . in scarcely more than a camera's flicker. For Ramon gave the world a thrill!

And that's the tale of another young conqueror, OLD GOLD cigarettes. New England surrendered in just two months. "You win, OLD GOLD!" said the Middle West. From coast-to-coast the victory spread. And OLD GOLD in just one year became the country's fastest growing cigarette. OLD GOLD, like Novarro, offered the world a brand new thrill. Finer tobaccos gave a mellow taste. Better tobaccos ended throat-screech.
