

By Standard.

CHICAGO, APRIL 16, 1865.

Latest News.

North is lost, with 4,000 prisoners.—The capture of the North is a matter of mere time. It is a matter of mere time, and will be accomplished in a matter of days. The North is a matter of mere time, and will be accomplished in a matter of days.

A New York dispatch reports that the North is a matter of mere time, and will be accomplished in a matter of days. The North is a matter of mere time, and will be accomplished in a matter of days.

The Amputation Plot.

Abraham Lincoln, the best and greatest man the Republic has ever known, died on Saturday morning, at 22 minutes past 7 o'clock. Booth, the assassin, was not there at the time of his death. He was in the city, but he did not see the President.

Booth's motive for the assassination was to free the slaves. He was a man of great energy and high intelligence. He was a man of great energy and high intelligence.

Booth's Motive.

The Amputation Plot was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President. It was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President.

The Amputation Plot was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President. It was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President.

Whitely says abolition.

The New York Tribune publishes a statement to prove that the present tax upon whisky and tobacco will pay the annual interest on a national debt of three thousand millions of dollars and afford a surplus for a sinking fund which will pay up the principal in the course of time. Now say we add to this an expenditure of one cent per cent on the sale of the Union.

Mr. Lincoln's death.

The last thing that the arch assassin has done is to have a tremendous number of copies of the Constitution of the United States printed and distributed to every citizen of the United States.

The Confession at Richmond.

The confession at Richmond was a confession of the fact that the Confederate Government was unable to pay its debts.

Mr. Lincoln's death.

The death of Mr. Lincoln was a great loss to the United States. He was a man of great energy and high intelligence.

ABRAHAM LINCOLN ASSASSINATED.

An Attempt Made upon the Life of Secretary Seward.

Abraham Lincoln's life has been saved by a bold desperado, who shot him through the head while witnessing the performance at Ford's Theatre, in Washington. From the multitude of desperadoes who give the following as the reasons for the assassination of the great man, we select the following as the most plausible.

Latest Telegraphic.

New York, April 14.—The Herald's correspondent writes: The assassination of Grant and Lee was private for a few moments, when the staff officers were admitted. Lee looked joyful and wore out. He was nearly drowned in grey cloth, without comment. During the interview, he was almost taken by a horse. He was taken to a private house, and he died there on Monday.

Washington, April 14, 1865.

President Lincoln, who had been in the city since the 14th of March, died at 22 minutes past 7 o'clock. He was in the city, but he did not see the President.

Booth's Motive.

The Amputation Plot was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President. It was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President.

Whitely says abolition.

The New York Tribune publishes a statement to prove that the present tax upon whisky and tobacco will pay the annual interest on a national debt of three thousand millions of dollars and afford a surplus for a sinking fund which will pay up the principal in the course of time.

Mr. Lincoln's death.

The last thing that the arch assassin has done is to have a tremendous number of copies of the Constitution of the United States printed and distributed to every citizen of the United States.

The Confession at Richmond.

The confession at Richmond was a confession of the fact that the Confederate Government was unable to pay its debts.

NEW YORK NOTES.

On the 14th of the present month, a large number of persons were held in New York. The most prominent of these were the leaders of the abolition movement.

Latest Telegraphic.

New York, April 14.—The Herald's correspondent writes: The assassination of Grant and Lee was private for a few moments, when the staff officers were admitted.

Washington, April 14, 1865.

President Lincoln, who had been in the city since the 14th of March, died at 22 minutes past 7 o'clock.

Booth's Motive.

The Amputation Plot was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President. It was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President.

Whitely says abolition.

The New York Tribune publishes a statement to prove that the present tax upon whisky and tobacco will pay the annual interest on a national debt of three thousand millions of dollars and afford a surplus for a sinking fund which will pay up the principal in the course of time.

Mr. Lincoln's death.

The last thing that the arch assassin has done is to have a tremendous number of copies of the Constitution of the United States printed and distributed to every citizen of the United States.

The Confession at Richmond.

The confession at Richmond was a confession of the fact that the Confederate Government was unable to pay its debts.

A MASS MEETING WAS HELD IN PHOENIX, THURSDAY EVENING FOR THE PURPOSE OF ADOPTING RESOLUTIONS IN OPPOSITION TO THE REBELLION.

A mass meeting was held in Phoenix, Thursday evening for the purpose of adopting resolutions in opposition to the rebellion. The meeting was held in Phoenix, Thursday evening for the purpose of adopting resolutions in opposition to the rebellion.

Latest Telegraphic.

New York, April 14.—The Herald's correspondent writes: The assassination of Grant and Lee was private for a few moments, when the staff officers were admitted.

Washington, April 14, 1865.

President Lincoln, who had been in the city since the 14th of March, died at 22 minutes past 7 o'clock.

Booth's Motive.

The Amputation Plot was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President. It was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President.

Whitely says abolition.

The New York Tribune publishes a statement to prove that the present tax upon whisky and tobacco will pay the annual interest on a national debt of three thousand millions of dollars and afford a surplus for a sinking fund which will pay up the principal in the course of time.

Mr. Lincoln's death.

The last thing that the arch assassin has done is to have a tremendous number of copies of the Constitution of the United States printed and distributed to every citizen of the United States.

The Confession at Richmond.

The confession at Richmond was a confession of the fact that the Confederate Government was unable to pay its debts.

THE GREENBACKS.

The greenbacks are a form of paper money issued by the Federal Government. They are a form of paper money issued by the Federal Government.

Latest Telegraphic.

New York, April 14.—The Herald's correspondent writes: The assassination of Grant and Lee was private for a few moments, when the staff officers were admitted.

Washington, April 14, 1865.

President Lincoln, who had been in the city since the 14th of March, died at 22 minutes past 7 o'clock.

Booth's Motive.

The Amputation Plot was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President. It was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President.

Whitely says abolition.

The New York Tribune publishes a statement to prove that the present tax upon whisky and tobacco will pay the annual interest on a national debt of three thousand millions of dollars and afford a surplus for a sinking fund which will pay up the principal in the course of time.

Mr. Lincoln's death.

The last thing that the arch assassin has done is to have a tremendous number of copies of the Constitution of the United States printed and distributed to every citizen of the United States.

The Confession at Richmond.

The confession at Richmond was a confession of the fact that the Confederate Government was unable to pay its debts.

THE NEW YORK TIMES.

The New York Times is a daily newspaper published in New York City. It is a daily newspaper published in New York City.

Latest Telegraphic.

New York, April 14.—The Herald's correspondent writes: The assassination of Grant and Lee was private for a few moments, when the staff officers were admitted.

Washington, April 14, 1865.

President Lincoln, who had been in the city since the 14th of March, died at 22 minutes past 7 o'clock.

Booth's Motive.

The Amputation Plot was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President. It was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President.

Whitely says abolition.

The New York Tribune publishes a statement to prove that the present tax upon whisky and tobacco will pay the annual interest on a national debt of three thousand millions of dollars and afford a surplus for a sinking fund which will pay up the principal in the course of time.

Mr. Lincoln's death.

The last thing that the arch assassin has done is to have a tremendous number of copies of the Constitution of the United States printed and distributed to every citizen of the United States.

The Confession at Richmond.

The confession at Richmond was a confession of the fact that the Confederate Government was unable to pay its debts.

LIST OF LETTERS.

A list of letters received by the office of the Standard. The list includes letters from various individuals and organizations.

Latest Telegraphic.

New York, April 14.—The Herald's correspondent writes: The assassination of Grant and Lee was private for a few moments, when the staff officers were admitted.

Washington, April 14, 1865.

President Lincoln, who had been in the city since the 14th of March, died at 22 minutes past 7 o'clock.

Booth's Motive.

The Amputation Plot was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President. It was a scheme to amputate the right arm of the President.

Whitely says abolition.

The New York Tribune publishes a statement to prove that the present tax upon whisky and tobacco will pay the annual interest on a national debt of three thousand millions of dollars and afford a surplus for a sinking fund which will pay up the principal in the course of time.

Mr. Lincoln's death.

The last thing that the arch assassin has done is to have a tremendous number of copies of the Constitution of the United States printed and distributed to every citizen of the United States.

The Confession at Richmond.

The confession at Richmond was a confession of the fact that the Confederate Government was unable to pay its debts.

MILLINERY!

Millinery advertisement for Miss C. Brink, advertising various styles of hats and bonnets.

MILLINERY!

Another millinery advertisement, highlighting new spring styles and a variety of hats.

MILLINERY!

Advertisement for a full assortment of bonnets, ladies' misses' and children's hats.

MILLINERY!

Advertisement for new spring styles, including a variety of hats and accessories.

MILLINERY!

Advertisement for a full assortment of hats and bonnets, including a variety of styles.

MILLINERY!

Advertisement for a full assortment of hats and bonnets, including a variety of styles.

MILLINERY!

Advertisement for a full assortment of hats and bonnets, including a variety of styles.

MILLINERY!

Advertisement for a full assortment of hats and bonnets, including a variety of styles.