Present Annual Fashion Show

The annual high school Style Show, "ABC's of Fashion", was presented on Tuesday, May 12, 1964 at 8:30 p.m. D.S.T.

The show was under the direction and supervision of Homemaking instructor, Mrs. Doris S. Poindexter. Participants were members of the Freshmen, Sophomore, and Senior homemaking classes modeling some of the garments they have made for themselves during the past year, either as class projects or home experiences. Organist was Perry Goering.

This year, the style show was a strict fashion show, such as would be seen at a dress shop. The most prominent fashions, of course, were the currently popular shift jumpers and the color-coordinated, three-piece sportswear outfits. Also featured, however, were such fashions as the Empire line, sleepwear, and the ever popular shirtwaist, the comfortable skirt and blouse combination, and evening wear. Models were featured first on stage and then as they walked down a long ramp, which extended the length of the Junior High gym, to give spectators a closer view of both model and fashion.

Due to an extremely busy school calendar for next year, there will be no style show presented.

Roster Toppers . . .

After a full year of meeting the weekly deadline for the Sumner Hi-Lites, Seniors Sharon Rieck, Vicki Poindexter, and Shirley Vandersee take out a few moments to share some of the enjoyable moments they have had working on the staff. Vicki Poindexter served as Editor-in-Chief; Sharon Rieck, Assistant Editor in charge of Senior features; and Shirley Vandersee, Assistant Editor in charge of features.

VICKI POINDEXTER

Attention:— People who call a person who get good grades or speaks to a teacher a brownie, are the object of Vicki's pet peeve. Redeem yourself!

Teachers: "You are to stay just the same, otherwise we'd have no one to gripe about."

The person asking all this attention is Vicki Poindexter, the one to receive much of the credit for this year's Sumner Hi-Lites. Vicki has been associated with the newspaper staff for three years and this year was Editor-in-Chief. Being on the staff was not her only activity however. She was kept busy, but happy, at such things as: Mixed Chorus, Girls' Glee Club, Secretary of Music Council, Secretary-Treasurer of Pep Club, President of Senior Class, Secretary of National Honor Society, and a Student Council member. Vicki also holds a part time job at the office of Dr. Robert M. Murphy, as an Optometric Assistant. She is a Sunday School teacher, Vice-president of Senior M.Y.F. and past Worthy Advisor of Rainbow, where she was recently selected to attend Grand Cross of Colors.

It is a wonder she has any time to indulge in such things as eating, but she does enjoy pizza, onions of all types, and turkey with dressing once in a while.

Since Vicki knows what a newspaper will print, she refused to write her most embarrassing moment on the grounds that it would be censored anyway.

Vicki joined the 1964 class in seventh grade when she transferred from Corning, Iowa, and now that graduation is over her plans include Simpson College. There she will major in English and minor in Foreign Language. After all this, she plans to join the Peace Corps and teach.

Vicki considers everything she has done as a particular highlight in itself, and she could never pick just one. "That's life."

There's a lot more that could be said for Vicki, but we want to leave the rest of her good points for "you" to discover when you meet her or someone like her.

SHIRLEY VANDERSEE

Something momentous happened to the Class of '64 way back in 1958 in seventh grade, for Shirley Vandersee transferred to Sumner from West Central. Since that time, the class has never been the same!

Besides being her cheerful, friendly self, Shirley has found to go to the nurse's room to lie down.

Shirley has a certain flair for being different and I imagine she's the only person in the Senior Class who considers Magruder's American Government as a book worth reading again. Her reason?—"It seems one can never remember all the things that later appear in the test."

Like many other Seniors, Shirley is fairly certain of her future plans. She's going to attend Wartburg College, major in government, and be a "mean" teacher!

SHARON RIECK

It's a bird! It's a plane! No, it's Sharon Rieck in her flying cup and saucer!

Where will she land? Aha, I see a flat table top in the distance. Will she make it? Easy does it, Sharon. There for a minute I thought she was going to land on the bread and butter plate.

Cautiously I crept up to her for I had many questions to ask her. First of all, I wanted to know why she had landed here. After asking Sharon this question, I received this reply, "&&&&&*" (translated: "I want to visit some place where there are a lot of hills and open country.")

Further questioning revealed that as a "Moon Maiden", Sharon had participated in Girls' Glee Club, Pep Club, Student Typist, Intramurals, Swing Show, Sunday School teacher, and Assistant Editor of the Hi-Lites.

Like Earth people Sharon's hobbies are playing the piano, writing to a pen pal in Australia, and collecting salt and pepper shakers on her many journeys to other planets.

Despite the language barrier, I was able to decipher several things about her school. For instance, their Junior and Senior years are the most memorable too, and students must try very hard to accomplish something in study hall.

Sharon and I had a lot of fun laughing about unusual things that had happened to her, especially the Halloween she and two of her friends decided to "spook" the football boys onto a victory. It seems they were "captured" by the Superintendent using an all school device, the intercom.

Before departing for her return trip to the moon, Sharon left this advice to teachers: "Don't heed any advice other than from those who are better than you!"

MINIATURE CALF

Far from being king size, a three-day-old calf weighing less than 20 pounds and about 22 inches high and two feet long. The calf was born to a normal size heifer which arrived on the Del Trowbridge farm east of Charles City.

POLYGON REVISITED

SNOOPER REQUIEM

by Jim Stensvaag

Hi, and welcome to the sophisticated man's Earl Wilson! 'Tis a privilege, indeed, to take over so noble a person's column as S. Snooper's and we hope to keep it as lively as it was then.

That title isn't as "square" as you may think it is—although this writer might be. The dictionary defines a polygon as a plane figure with many faces, and, corny as it may seem, we hope to take off on many different subjects. If, on any future occasion, anyone is deeply offended, apologies are herewith provided, but if it arouses your ire, good! Opinions expressed in this column will be the writer's only, and it wouldn't be any fun 'tall if everybody agreed!

Forewarning—don't make any mistakes! If you think the Snooper had eyes everywhere, you're

Rest from Finals

Taking a break from the worry and work of preparing for final examinations, Seniors Evelyn Stevens and LuAnn Hoth make a quick check of the name cards and autographs Lu-

Ann has collected in her "Memory Book." The high school career for these two girls and seventy-eight other seniors came to a memorable close at Graduation exercises on May 19, 1964.

Thank You . . .

At this time the Hi-Lites Staff would like to express their thanks to the many readers of the Hi-Lites. The staff extends a special thanks to Mr. Heyer, who weekly published the school news, and to Mr. Lahmann, who served as advisor.

The Editors would also like to extend their thanks to the Staff members, who have contributed much of their time and talent to make this year's Hi-Lites a success.

Two Juniors Receive Journalism Awards

The Iowa High School Journalism Workshop scholarships were awarded this past week to Juniors, Marlene Cross and Kathy Moran. These scholarships are presented each year by Mr. James Heyer of the Sumner Gazette Publishing Company and the Sumner High School.

The Journalism Workshop is conducted by the School of Journalism of the State University of Iowa. This year's workshop will be held during the week of June 8-12 during which time students will have an opportunity to study the various phases of planning, editing, and producing the high school newspaper.

The 1963-64 Certificate of Achievement awards were presented to the following students at the awards assembly held on Wednesday, May 13: Vicki Poindexter, Editor; Sharon Rieck, Asst., Editor; Shirley Vandersee, Asst., Editor; Edward Humpal, Pat Wilson, and Karla Wuttke.

Typing Honor Roll Announced

Sumner Gazette—3
Thursday, May 21, 1964

With Our Servicemen

The second semester Typewriting Honor Roll of the Sumner High School was announced this past week by Mr. James Lahmann, instructor. Typing II students recognized for their performance on the one-minute timed tests are David DeHaven (74), Marlene Cross (66), Allen Avery (64), Richard Herrmann (58), and Dan Meyer (58). These scores are based on the Net Words Per Minute rate in which ten words are subtracted for each error committed.

Typing III students were recognized on their performance on both one—and five-minute timed writings. The five-minute NWPM speed is given in parentheses. Edward Humpal 91 (68), Mary Riesner 85 (68), Marilyn Block 84 (66), Kathy Gersonde 72 (56), Janice Platte 74 (53), and Connie Brunscheon 68 (56).

Airman Second Class Glen E. Chase, has arrived for duty with the Air Force Communications Service unit at Clark AB, Philippines.

Airman Chase, a radio repairman, previously served at Waverly, Air Force Station, Waverly, Iowa.

Airman Chase, a graduate of Roosevelt High School, attended the University of Missouri. His wife, Sandra, is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James S. Leomon of 210 Second St. SW, Waverly.

CABBAGE

Mrs. Frances See of Ely has a 28 inch sprout from a cabbage head from her garden last September and put it in the refrigerator. The growth thrived in a pit in her cellar.

EWE

An ewe owned by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. Herink, of near Chelsea, gave birth to quintuplets recently. The ewe first delivered twins, then triplets and finally, quintuplets.
