

FREDERIKA CHURCH FORMS BROTHERHOOD

Lutheran Men Elect Officers at Meeting Monday Night

FREDERIKA—The men of the Frederika Lutheran church met in the church Monday night and organized a Brotherhood. Officers elected were Carl Krueger, president; Edwin Lemple, vice president; Orval Radach, secretary, and Will Hagedorn, treasurer. Prof. J. H. Groth addressed the brotherhood, speaking on his experiences as a missionary in Montana. Refreshments were served by a committee.

Visitor Talks to Aid Society
Members of the Lutheran Aid society met in the church basement Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Ed Mahlstedt as hostess, assisted by her mother, Mrs. John Wendt sr. After the business and devotional meeting a talk given by Prof. J. H. Groth of Seattle, Wash., brother of Rev. U. F. Groth, was very much enjoyed. Mrs. Will Hagedorn joined the society. A delicious lunch was served. Mrs. Leon Qualley will be the hostess in April.

Men's Supper Nets $27
About $27 was realized Wednesday night at the supper served in the M. E. church. The supper, an annual event, was sponsored by the men of the church. The cooking and serving was done entirely by the men.

Attend Funeral Wednesday
Mrs. Harry Koch and son, Theodore of Washington, D. C., and Henry and Erwin Winzenberg of Chicago were among the relatives who came to attend the funeral rites of Mrs. Herman Bockhaus last Wednesday.

Open Interclass Series
In the first of the interclass series of the tournaments, the Junior high defeated the Intermediate 15 to 13 in a last minute rally. Jim Parson pouring in six points for the losers and Harper four while the Junior high scoring was divided evenly. These teams prove to be good players with all of them showing plenty of good clean fight and classy ball handling.

Squad Attends Tournament
Coach Earl Berge with the basketball squad, Lyle Bowers, Leland Alcock, Raymond Sievers, Howard Richmond and Harold Kappmeyer attended the state basketball tournament at Iowa City Saturday.

First Grade
The pupils are reading the stories in Unit 11 of their basic readers. This unit includes six interesting stories of animals and birds.

Second Grade
Ruth Steege and Florence Garland are back after an absence of two weeks on account of chickenpox. Harold Walker is now ill with this disease.

Third Grade
This week in arithmetic we will have the three Gateway tests. After the papers have been scored each pupil will add his or her points on the three tests.

Fourth Grade
In health we started a new unit "Good Body Posture."

Fifth Grade
The class is enjoying another pioneer story about the period following the War of 1812. This book is "Peace Pipes at Portage" by Darby, and is a true story of pioneer life in old St. Louis. Many historical events are given in the story.

Sixth Grade
In history we are studying about the beginnings of our nation and how the government was formed.

Seventh Grade
As the second unit of work in connection with our study of early American poets, we are illustrating familiar verses of America's favorite poets of children's verses. Each of us is trying to use an original and different idea for our work.

Eighth Grade
In our race to see how many students would miss no words in spelling this six weeks we have one lone pupil who has still made no errors in spelling by erasing or retracing or misspelling the word. This is Wilbur Howard. Mary Anderson, Marilee Blume and Marian Murphy have only erred once. Hilmer Cosby has made two mistakes.

Ninth Grade
In keeping with "Conservation Week" we have made posters on all phases of the topics: flowers, birds, trees, soil erosion. Our bird program will consist of several reports on conservation. Each member will respond to roll call by the name of an extinct bird or birds threatened with extinction.

Tenth Grade
Our bird building contest ends this week when the bird houses will be put on display in Shales drug store and Koeberle's hardware store on March 21. Blue ribbons stand for first prizes, red ribbons for seconds and yellow ribbons for honorable mention. Girls and boys houses will be judged separately.

Eleventh Grade
We are glad to have James Minkel back with us. He has been ill with the chickenpox.

Twelfth Grade
Our language work now will include a study of the different kinds of adjectives, of adverbs, prepositions and conjunctions and their uses.

High School
A new unit is being studied in history "The Growth of Industry from 1860 to the Present." During this period great corporations and many new industries grew giving rise to many labor problems and government regulations of some occupations.
