

Celebration of Life

Tristin Janey Laue

May 11, 1998-April 27, 2019

Tristin Janey Laue, 20, of Waverly, Iowa passed away on Saturday, April 27, 2019 at his home in Waverly from complications of Fibrolamellar Liver Cancer.

Tristin was born on May 11, 1998, in Osage, the son of Mitchell and Sarah (Doty) Laue. Tristin was united in marriage to Tianna Hargrafen on April 27, 2019. He was baptized in May of 1999, at Trinity Lutheran Church in New Hampton. Tristin attended elementary school in Cresco and middle school in New Hampton. He graduated from New Hampton High School in 2016. He entered the United States Army National Guard in July of 2016 and was medically discharged and retired from the Army in April of 2018. He attended UNI from 2018-2019. He worked at Fareway Stores and most recently for Ronan Industries.

Tristin enjoyed collecting guns and shooting with his friends. He also enjoyed gaming and collecting pieces for his Star Wars Armada game. He also really enjoyed boating, jet skiing, and camping with friends and family.

Tristin was very focused on doing well in school. He also had a great relationship with his boss Ronan (Ronan Industries), whom he liked and respected tremendously. He always looked forward to new challenges and finding new solutions to problems at work.

Tristin was very goal oriented and had a bright future ahead of him. He was studying at UNI for Engineering Design and also enjoyed spending time with his new found love, Tianna.

Tristin is survived by his wife, Tianna; his father, Mitchell (Debra) Laue, of Waverly; his mother, Sarah (Kurt) Larson, of New Hampton; his brothers and sisters, Braden Laue, Madison Stoffregen, Zak Larson, Marley Larson, and Kane Larson; paternal grandmother, Janice Laue, of Des Moines; maternal grandfather, Gary Doty, of Omaha, Nebraska; paternal step-grandparents, Joel (Nanc) Smith, of Shell Rock, and Michael Harn, of Waterloo; maternal step-grandparents, Gary (Deb) Larson; his father and mother-in-law, Kevin (Shelly) Hargrafen, of Dyersville; and numerous aunts, uncles, and cousins, along with the family dog, Bentley. He was preceded in death by his paternal grandfather, William Laue; his maternal grandmother, Paulette Doty; and a family dog, Frodo.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, May 4, 2019, at Crosspoint Church in Waverly with Pastor Jonathan Barthalow officiating. Burial will be held in Harlington Cemetery in Waverly with full military rites at the grave conducted by the Army Honor Guard. Visitation will be held on Friday from 4-8 p.m. at the Crosspoint Church in Waverly and also for one hour prior to services on Saturday at the church. Memorials may be directed to the Tristin Laue Memorial Account at Veridian Credit Union in Waverly. Online condolences may be left at www.kaisercorson.com.

Flint Hills surpasses $1 M in DU donations

SHELL ROCK – Ducks Unlimited has recognized Flint Hills Resources for surpassing the $1 million milestone in giving to the organization nationwide. Flint Hills Resources' contribution to Ducks Unlimited now totals nearly $1.3 million.

In 2019, support from Flint Hills Resources will help Ducks Unlimited enhance more than 300 acres of shallow lakes, restore nearly 160 acres of wetland and upland habitat, and acquire and restore 13 acres of land that will be added to the state's holdings for public use in Iowa.

The company is a primary supporter of the Living Lakes Initiative, a Ducks Unlimited program to enhance shallow lakes, restore and protect small wetlands and prairie uplands, and acquire and restore additional habitat from willing landowners to increase public holdings. This work occurs in Iowa, Nebraska, Minnesota, Wisconsin, Texas and Georgia.

"It's an honor to be recognized by a group whose mission we so strongly believe in," said Garland Krabbenhoft, Plant Manager at the Flint Hills Shell Rock, Fairbank and Iowa Falls plants. "We support Ducks Unlimited's efforts to restore natural habitats and protect the natural beauty in the communities

we call home."

"Ducks Unlimited is stronger because of its partnerships with companies that share our appreciation for the outdoors," said Adam DeHaan, senior director of development for Ducks Unlimited. "Flint Hills Resources is one of our longest standing corporate sponsors. Their commitment to conservation has allowed us to make major ecological impacts across North America, and for that we are thankful."

About Ducks Unlimited

Ducks Unlimited Inc. (DU) is the world's largest nonprofit organization dedicated to conserving North America's continually disappearing waterfowl habitats. Established in 1937, Ducks Unlimited has conserved more than 14 million acres thanks to contributions from more than a million supporters across the continent. Guided by science and dedicated to program efficiency, DU works toward the vision of wetlands sufficient to fill the skies with waterfowl today, tomorrow and forever. For more information on our work, visit ducks.org.
